MISSOURI SENATE PASSES WOMAN SUFFRAGE BILL

PEACE DELEGATES NOW HOPE TREATY MAY BE SIGNED IN THREE WEEKS

Super-Council of Four Is Said to Have Satisfactorily Disposed of Boundary Question—Council of Foreign Ministers Is Formed.

ARMY CHIEFS HEARD ON EASTERN SITUATION

Reparations Agreed on and German Financial Experts Who Are Going to Versailles Will Discuss the Enemy Resources.

As the Associated Press.
PARIS, March 28.—Hopes are expressed in peace conference circles that the preliminary peace treaty
may be signed by April 20.

Today's Paris newspapers in discussing yesterday's session of the council of four, declare that extremely important problems directly connected with Germany's future boundaries were discussed in an excellent spirit of understanding. The Petit Parisien says it understands important results were achieved.

Territorial Question "Settled."
According to the Matin, the territorial questions involved in the problems of protecting France adequately have been satisfactorily solved.

As to the financial problems the solution reported to have been advised provides for the payment by Germany of yearly installments on the indemnity of which France would receive a portion sufficient to lighten
the burden of her budget.

A council of the Foreign Ministers and Foreign Secretaries of Great Britain, the United States, France and Italy has been created to work simultaneously with the Premier and President Wilson, but on different branches of the great technical questions involved in the peace settlement.

This action has been taken in the interest of speed. Japan is not given representation in the new council because its delegation does not include its Foreign Minister. It is believed the Council of Foreign Ministers will consider the Italian question, as well as the feasibility of arranging a peace treaty
to include all the belligerent nations.

The super-council of the President and Premier, now known as the council of four, divided its labors yesterday between the "White House" and M. Clemenceau's private office, adjoining the War Office.

The Franco-German frontier was the chief topic of discussion, this following upon agreement reached Wednesday night on reparations for war damages. It is understood that this agreement includes the vital points of the total amounts of demunities which will not be announced at present, as it is likely to cause discussion and arouse hostility in enemy quarters. It is noted as a coincidence that a German mission commission is being chosen to come to Versailles, where the settlement of this branch may include all interests.

Question of Politics Now.
The frontier question turns on the disposition of the Saar Valley coal regions and the west bank of the Rhine. The territorial experts have said their last word, and frankly declare that it is a question now of political expediency, on which the super-council alone can pass.

Marshal Foch and Gen. Bliss, Pershing, Wilson and Diaz were called into the council during the afternoon, indicating that military questions, including the serious situation in Hungary and Russia, were receiving attention.

President Wilson, who has virtually been silent since his return to Paris, believed the time was opportune for a statement which would allay apprehension over the delay and show that the revision of the covenant of the league of nations had proceeded at night sessions without any interruption to the other main questions. The President therefore issued a denial that there have been delays in the conclusion of peace because of the failure to complete a league of nations covenant.

The Temps believes that the council of four will complete the draft of the preliminary treaty today and will then examine each article separately.

POLICE CASH BOX ROBBED, CAPTAIN OFFERS REWARD

Schwartz Announces He Will Pay $25 for Capture of Headquarters Thief.

Capt. Albert Schwartz, in charge of Central Police Station, has adopted the method employed by persons robbed by the so-called "efficiency burglar" in offering reward for the return of stolen property. Today he requested newspaper reporters at Police Headquarters to announce that he would pay out of his own pocket $25 for information leading to the capture of a person who has been systematically looting a cash drawer in Central Station.

In the past week three envelopes containing a total of $35 have been stolen from the "property drawer,"
which is protected by a special lock.
Only three Desk Sergeants and six clerks on duty on the three shifts have access to the drawer and they all deny knowing anything of the thefts.

The office at Central Station, where the money is kept when it is taken from prisoners, is guarded by two gates which are kept locked all the time and which bear large printed notices that "No Outsiders Are Allowed."

Two of the envelopes, each containing $15, belonged to prisoners and the other contained money which had been found on the street and turned over to policemen. It was awaiting a claimant when taken.

CRIMINAL CARELESSNESS VERDICT IN AUTO ACCIDENT

Child Was Fatally Hurt by Machine Driven by a Youth of 18 Years.

A verdict of criminal carelessness holding Alfred B. Stevens, 18 years old, 5467 Delmar boulevard, a clerk
for the Mechanics-American Bank,
for the death last Tuesday of Lillian Smith, 7 years old, an inmate of the Girls' Industrial Home at Belt and Eighth avenues, was returned by a coroner's jury today.

The girl was one of a party of three which was run down at 7:45
p. m. as they were crossing Delmar boulevard, about 250 feet east of Clara avenue, by an automobile driven by Stevens. Mrs. Lillian Knight, employed at the Methodist Orphans' Home at Newstead and Manchester avenues, who is in a hospital from her injuries, made affirmative testimony that Stevens was driving at a high rate of speed. The girl's mother, who also was injured, is Mrs. Myrtle Smith, employed at 59
Kingsbury place.

U. S. REINFORCEMENTS TO RUSSIA

Brigadier-General Prichardson Going With Engineers to Archangel.

LONDON, March 28.—Brigadier-General Prichardson, U. S. A., who has been given command of the American expedition in Northern Russia, will leave London in a few days with a fair-sized detachment of engineers, sanitary workers and reconnaissance troops for Archangel.
The engineers predominate in the detachment. They will be used to repair and improve the roads from the American front back to the sea.
Reports to army headquarters today were that vessels could get into Archangel with the aid of strong ice breakers.

DRY REFERENDUM ILLEGAL

SALEM, Ore., March 28.—The referendum cannot be invoked by the people of Oregon on the joint resolution adopted by the last Legislature ratifying the national prohibition
amendment to the Federal Constitution, according to Attorney-General
Brown's opinion to Secretary of State
Olcott yesterday.

He pointed out that, under the law of Oregon, a referendum can only apply to the law-making power of the Legislature and that bills or acts may be referred but not resolutions.

WOMAN CASHIER AT STATLER HELD AS AN EMBEZZLER

Miss Marie Bongner Turned Over to Lawyer's Custody After Warrant Is Issued on Technical Shortage of $39.

AMOUNT INVOLVED
SAID TO BE $1000

She Denies Charge and Counsel
Explains That Other Persons Had Access to Cash Under Her Care.

Embezzlement by a clerk is charged in an information filed by the Circuit Attorney today against Miss Marie Bongner, 33 years old, 2509 Rauschenbach avenue, who until her dismissal Monday, had been desk cashier at the Hotel Statler
since its opening.

Although the specific amount mentioned in the information is $36, the Circuit Attorney preferred the embezzlement charge following a statement made by Attorney A. A. Alexander, representing the hotel and the Fidelity and Deposit Co., of Maryland, which was on Miss Bongner's bond, that she was approximately $1000 short in her accounts.

Miss Bongner, who appeared with counsel in the Circuit Attorney's office was not arrested. Her attorney was permitted to promise that he would obtain bond for her release
after a hearing on the arraignment.
It was said at the Circuit Attorney's office that a statement made by Miss Bongner to the attorney for the bonding company, which was subsequently repudiated by her, formed the basis for the allegation that she had appropriated to her own use money belonging to the hotel.

The Circuit Attorney was informed that the alleged shortage was discovered when two guest accounts,
which had been paid, disappeared
from her records. The accounts itemized on cards had been turned over to her, it was said, with the cash corresponding with the amounts on the cards. The aggregate sum of the two accounts was $15 and the Circuit Attorney was told, that Miss Bongner's receipts were short $15
on that particular day.

Lawyer Denies Charge.
Attorney Meyer Blocher, Railway Exchange Building, Miss Bongner's counsel, to whom she referred a Post-Dispatch reporter for her version of the case, said that Miss Bon-ger was innocent of the charge of having taken any money belonging to the hotel. He said that she had been trapped into making an alleged confession, but that the charge that she was short $1000 was an absolute falsehood.

Miss Bongner, he said, had served as cashier at the Statler Hotel and Platters Hotel before joining the staff of the Statler when it began business in St. Louis, and that she had never been accused of taking a penny.

In describing the manner in which the hotel funds passed through Miss Bongner's hands, Blocher said that whenever a guest was ready to pay a bill the guest would be given an account card by the bill clerk. The guest would then take the card to Miss Bongner and pay her the amount specified on the card. The hotel officials of the bonding company, he said, alleged that account cards had disappeared from time to time from Miss Bongner's records, and that the corresponding amounts of cash also were missing.

Others Had Access to Cash.
Blocher said that several attaches
of the hotel had easy access to Miss Bongner's accounts, and cash, and that if there was a shortage it would be difficult to trace it to any particular person.

Regarding her alleged confession,
he said that she had been tricked
into saying that she had $200 belonging to the hotel, when, what she meant to say was that she had $200 owed up out of her income. She was paid $75 a month.

Another part of the alleged confession, which Blocher characterized as trickery, was in reference to the loss of Liberty bonds by Miss Bongner. The Circuit Attorney was told that she had admitted buying bonds with the hotel's money. Bongner said that she purchased only two bonds and that they were paid for out of her own funds.

SIX MONTHS TO BE GIVEN FOR PAYING IN ON VICTORY LOAN

Treasury Arranges for Installments Running From May 10 to Nov. 11.

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, March 28.—Terms of payment in the new Victory Liberty Loan, announced today, are the most liberal ever offered by the Government. Deferred payments may be extended from May 10 to Nov. 11,
six months from May 10 to Nov. 11.
Secretary Glass announced today that 10 per cent of subscriptions would be due with application on or before May 10, another 10 per cent on or before July 15, and four subsequent installments of 20 per cent
each on or before Aug. 12, Sept. 9, Oct. 7 and Nov. 11. Accrued interest on deferred installments will be due with the last payment.

Payment in full can be made May 20, if desired, the 10 per cent with application having been paid prior to May 10. Payments also can be completed on any installment date
with accrued interest.

HOUSE COMMENDS FIGHT FOR FULL VALUE ASSESSMENT

Resolution Adopted Praising Governor and Hackmann for Their Stand in Board.

By the Associated Press.
JEFFERSON CITY, March 28.—
The House of Representatives today adopted a resolution commending
Gov. Gardner and Auditor Hackmann for their fight as members of the Board of Equalization to bring about a full value assessment of all property in the State.

The resolution, which was introduced by Representative Hodges of Warren County, is a direct slap at Attorney-General McAllister, Treasurer Middlekamp and Secretary of State Sullivan, though it does not mention them by name.
Hackmann introduced a resolution
at a board meeting Wednesday calling for a full value assessment, but it failed for want of a second.
Though Gov. Gardner announced he favored it, McAllister was absent from that meeting, but voted last week with Middlekamp and Sullivan to ignore the full value assessments of more than 100 County Assessors and made an arbitrary assessment of all property at a fractional value.

The resolution adopted with only a few scattered noes on the Democratic side, says "The House does not favor the action of the Board of Equalization in ignoring the full value assessments of more than 100 County Assessors and made an arbitrary assessment of all property at a fractional value."

PLANS TO COMPILE 1920 CENSUS

District Supervisors to Appoint Nu-merators and Interpreters.

WASHINGTON, March 28.—So many applications for jobs in compiling the 1920 census have been received by the Census Bureau that it was announced today that local nu-merators and interpreters would be chosen by district supervisors and not by the headquarters here.
The supervisors, who will be paid $1500
and one dollar additional for each thousand of population enumerated,
will be appointed tonight July 1.
Special agents for the census of manufacture and quarries will not be appointed until 1920. Clerical positions in Washington will be filled only through civil service recruitment.

ALLIED FOOD TRAINS FROM TRIEST STOPPED

Emissaries of Hungarian Rev-

Received by German-Austrian Assembly.

By the Associated Press.

VIENNA, Thursday, March 27.—
A railroad strike has been called and threatens to spread to all the roads in this country. The strike was called partly for higher wages and partly because of sympathy with the Hungarian revolution. It is feared it may lead to the establishment of a Soviet republic in German-Austria.

The trouble began last night when men employed by the Southern Railroad walked out. All traffic over this road is at a complete standstill, even allied food trains from Triest being stopped. As a result on this interruption of transportation of supplies, Vienna is threatened with famine. The situation is considered extremely grave.

LONDON, Thursday, March 28.—Em-credentials to the president of the German-Austrian National Assembly at Vienna yesterday, according to a Budapest dispatch received here.

Hopes for the continuance of amicable relations between Hungary and German-Austria were mutually expressed. It is said the Hungarian delegates visited the Chancellor and the Ministers of War and Finance
at Vienna.

The dispatch states that the revolutionary Government has ordered Entente flags hoisted on the hotel
where the Entente missions have been stopping and that posters will soon be issued warning the people to respect all foreigners in Budapest.

LONDON, Thursday, March 27.—
State Senator Carter M. Buford of Ellington, Reynolds County, has been retained to aid former Gov. Major in the defense of Bruce Cameron, superintendent of the United Railways Co., under indictment in connection with the theft and destruction of the United Railways referendum petitions last June.

The Cameron case was yesterday
sent by Judge Calhoun on a change of venue to Reynolds County. Buford's home, and where Buford has been a political power for many years, having been elected to the House and to the Senate several times.

Buford said today he had been conditionally retained in Cameron's defense several days ago, before the Court announced where the case would be sent. He said that when the attorneys were conferring with the Court, he was employed, the employees being contingent on the case going to Reynolds County.

Women Sing "Praise God From Whom All Blessings Flow," at Missouri Victory

Cheering and Waving of Banners for Several Minutes Follows Announcement of Passage of Suffrage Bill.

When word reached the National Suffrage convention headquarters at Hotel Statler that the Missouri Senate had passed the equal suffrage
bill sponsored by the Missouri Suffrage League, a spontaneous celebration interrupted the regular program of the day. The Missouri women were more excited than the delegates from other states. There was loud cheering and waving of banners, the demonstration lasting several minutes.

Announcement of receipt of the news was made by Miss Mary Garrett Hay, president of the New York City Women's Republican party, and at the suggestion of Dr. Anna Howard Shaw, honorary president of the national association, the delegates all joined in singing "Praise God From Whom All Blessings Flow."

Prior to the receipt of the news from Jefferson City the convention had elected Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt temporary chairman of the Woman Voters' League, the organization of which was agreed upon yesterday. Miss Katherine Pierce of Oklahoma was elected temporary secretary. It was agreed to address to all the members in the league all women from the 25 states which have allowed presidential suffrage.

Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, president of the National American Women's Suffrage Association and president of the International Suffrage Alliance, who is presiding as chairman over the suffrage convention in St. Louis, said:

"The Missouri Legislature has made the Missouri women proud of their State and all other women proud of their nation. The only choice left to the United States is to catch up with the world procession of democracy. Missouri is well to the front in the march forward. She will never regret this act of justice."

Mrs. George Gellhorn, president of the St. Louis Equal Suffrage League, when informed of the action of the State Senate, said:

"We appear to have obtained what we sought from the Missouri Legislature, and we are grateful to the legislators for their recognition of the fact that the services of women are as much needed, in time of peace as in war."

As to the submission of a constitutional suffrage amendment in this State, such campaigns are expensive,
and it will probably not be necessary to make such a campaign here, as it is the opinion of the national women suffrage will come through the action of the Sixty-sixth Congress and the State Legislatures, in an amendment to the Federal Constitution."

FATALLY HURT BY AUTO IN USE AS AMBULANCE

Bookkeeper Struck at 12th and Olive by Machine Carrying Injured Firemen.

Herman Busen, 35 years old, a bookkeeper of 2523 Indiana avenue, died at the city hospital at 12:40 a.
m. today from injuries suffered at 6 o'clock last night, when struck at Twelfth and Olive streets by the automobile of District Fire Chief Frank Devoto. The Chief's auto was being used as an ambulance at the time, taking an injured fireman to the city dispensary.

The fatality brings the automobile
deaths in St. Louis since Jan. 1 to 18, compared to 23 in the corresponding period last year.

The Fire Department machine was in charge of John Thompson, a fireman-chauffeur attached to Engine Company No. 17. In the machine with him was Oliver Meyer, 33 years old, 2473 South Spring avenue, a fireman who had been severely cut by falling glass at a blaze in a bottling works at 2221 Morgan street.
The machine was driven south in Twelfth street toward the dispensary
at a moderate rate of speed, he said, when, at Olive street, an eastbound street car blocked his path.
He turned to the west to go around behind the car. Busen was crossing Twelfth street from the west to the east side and was but a few feet from the curb when Thompson served to the west and struck him.

The Fire Department auto took Busen to the dispensary. He suffered a compound fracture of the right thigh, fractured ankle and internal injuries. He was taken to the hospital in an ambulance.

DIFFICULTIES IN WAY OF MONROE DOCTRINE CLAUSE

Amendment to Covenant May Be Withheld If Its Presentation Would Bring Troublesome Clauses.

CHANGES TO PERMIT NATIONS TO QUIT

Suffrage Recognized in New Draft — Japanese Find Strong Opposition to Their Equality Clause.

By the Associated Press.
PARIS, March 28.—It developed last night that unexpected obstacles had arisen concerning the Monroe Doctrine amendment to the league of nations covenant, making it doubtful whether the amendment can be incorporated in the revised document.

The draft of the covenant is in the hands of the special drafting committee. The draft is expected to be ready in completed form early next week. The two amendments around which has centered the greatest interest and much divergence of opinion—that concerning the Monroe Doctrine and the Japanese proposal for recognition of racial equality of nations—however, may be offered either in the Council of Ten or to the plenary peace conference, to which the covenant must go for final action.

Suffrage Recognized.
Among other amendments adopted Wednesday night was one directly recognizing the principle of women's suffrage in that it provides that the offices of the league are open to women as well as to men.

The much discussed question as to the policy of the withdrawal from membership in the league of nations was settled by an amendment permitting withdrawal on two years' notice but not until such nation has filled out its international obligations.

Article X of the covenant, to which the Monroe Doctrine amendment would apply, stands on its original form. President Wilson having reserved for the present the amendment which had been prepared as expressing the views of the American delegation. It is now explained that it was not the exact text but only the general form of the amendment which was given to the press and that hence criticism must be withheld for the present.

Careful soundings are being taken to ascertain the reception that is likely to be given this amendment by other delegations. If unfriendly sentiment develops or the pressing of other obvious amendments is threatened as a consequence of insistence upon the Monroe Doctrine, it is said the amendment may be altogether withheld. It has been learned that thus far the result of these inquiries has not been such as encouraging to the advocates of the amendment but that they will be continued until the attitude of all the delegations is ascertained.

Japanese Meet Opposition.
Since the first mention of the desire of the Japanese to obtain an amendment recognizing equality before the law for all nations in the league of nations states in other countries the Japanese delegates have not pressed their amendment before the commission itself. They have, however, been canvassing the delegations with various forms of such an amendment, endeavoring to find out the feeling toward it. They ran squarely on one reef today, when Premier Hughes of Australia declared without qualification that the Australian delegation would not support or stand in favor of any amendment of any kind whatever, containing the Japanese desires.

As a matter of fact, the Japanese amendment did not come before the commission Wednesday night, but it is understood its authors have not abandoned the idea of obtaining an expression of feeling on it from the Council of Ten, and perhaps from the plenary peace conference itself.

"Australia," Hughes said in an interview, "cannot accept this pro-

President Says Work on League Is Not Delaying Final Peace

By the Associated Press.

PARIS, March 28.—President Wilson yesterday issued the following statement:

"In view of the very surprising impression which seems to exist in some quarters that it is the discussions of the commission on the league of nations that are delaying the final formulation of peace, I am very glad to take the opportunity of reporting that the conclusions of this commission were the first to be laid before the plenary conference.

"They were reported on Feb. 14 and the world has had a full month in which to discuss every feature of the draft covenant then submitted.

"During the last few days the commission has been engaged in an effort to take advantage of the criticisms which the publication of the covenant has fortunately drawn out.

"A committee of the commission has also had the advantage of a conference with representatives of the neutral states, who evidence a very deep interest and a practically unanimous desire to align themselves with the league.

"The revised covenant is now practically finished. It is in the hands of a committee of the final process drafting and will almost immediately be presented a second time to the public.

"The conferences of the commission have been held at times when they could not interfere with the consultations of those who have undertaken to formulate the general conclusions of the conference with regard to the many of the complicated problems of peace. So that the members of the commission congratulate themselves on the fact that no part of their conferences has ever been interrupted by any form of delay."

PLAN FOR SINGLE TREATY WOULD CAUSE DELAY

Paris Dispatches Indicate Italy's Desire to Have Her Case Settled With France's Impedes Progress.

WILSON FOR DECIDING FUNDAMENTALS FIRST

President Would Let League, With Time for Mature Consideration, Care for Questions in Dispute.

(Reprinted from late issues of yesterday's Post-Dispatch.)

By DAVID LAWRENCE,
Special to the Post-Dispatch and the New York Evening Post.

WASHINGTON, March 27.—Consideration of embracing in a single peace treaty with Germany, Austria, Turkey and Bulgaria a settlement of all questions, tells in a nutshell just what has been delaying the making of peace since President Wilson's return to Europe.

There have been those who believed the President's discovery that the league was not included in the preliminary pact with Germany drawn during his absence was at the bottom of the trouble.

The American delegation, says the Washington Post, is now faced with the refusal to sanction the Polish settlement. Still others have pointed out the Italian threat to withdraw from the conference unless she were given Piuma.

Convincing evidence that Italy objected to the signing of a peace treaty with Germany alone unless the Adriatic was definitely settled.

Italy was not ready to agree to the "neutralization" of the German provinces on the left bank of the Rhine, with provisions that the French troops should continue to occupy the territory on the pretense of adding to the military security of France.

Proposals to neutralize the territory by forbidding the troops of either France or Germany to enter the provinces, but allowing the territory to remain in the hands of Germany was reported to have been looked on with favor by the French delegation.

Italy Holding Up Action.
Italy was not ready to sanction the award of France's claims until her own were satisfied. The only solution appeared to be to revert to the plan of a single peace treaty embracing all countries instead of a pact with each of the enemy belligerents which might have left France satisfied but Italy unsatisfied.

But a single peace treaty, it is admitted by all the Paris correspondents, would delay the making of peace for nearly two months, so complex are the questions. "It would not be surprising if, at the end of this time, many of the questions were still unsettled, and that a proposal would be made to leave their settlement to the league of nations.

The President himself has been using this device to make the more quickly if all Powers agreed on a few fundamentals and left territorial problems to the league to work out with expert boundary commissions and with a better opportunity for investigation of the different claims urged on military and ethnological or economic grounds.

While, therefore, the peace conference would be free to reach agreement on the various questions to be embraced in a single peace treaty with all the enemy Governments, the work on the league of nations covenant would proceed along parallel lines.

Conceivably the covenant would be reviewed or rewritten by the time all the provisions of the single peace treaty could be agreed upon.

Italy has won a victory in her effort to secure a recognition of her case at the same time that the problems of France were being settled. Italy claims that, if the secret treaties are to be valid for the use of France, the same principle must apply to Italian desires. With the decision to settle French and Italian claims in a single treaty, the peace conference must declare itself on the Adriatic claims.

Official Washington, which includes those members of Congress who are still here, is more or less divided as to the responsibility for the delay. Opponents of the league are declaring that Mr. Wilson has thrust this forward too prominently.

Friends of the President point out that at the same time in Paris has France or Italy failed to have an opportunity to discuss their respective claims, and they add that, if minutes were produced of all the sittings of the Council of Ten, it would be found that questions directly involved in the making of a peace treaty, such as reparation, the Rhine frontier, the German colonies, the Syrian question, the Polish boundaries and Adriatic claims have been taken up as much time and conversation as the league of nations, if not a great deal more.

Not a little time has been spent endeavoring to reconcile the views of the United States on the subject of food for Central Europe, where Bolshevism has broken loose, and not a little time has been taken in trying to convince Italy that she must raise the blockade of the Adriatic and permit food to go into Jugoslavia and other parts of what was formerly the Austro-Hungarian empire.

The failure of the Council of Ten to permit the public to know all that has been happening in their conferences makes it possible for politicians on both sides of the water to place the responsibility for delay where they please. But the most interesting of all the foreign comment which states the case as clearly today as it had been said a month or two months or three months ago, in fact ever since the signing of the armistice, is the following extract from an editorial just cabled from the London Daily News, which says:

"The tragic situation (referring to Hungary) is due to the failure of the allies to provide the Central Empires with food and raw materials while the Paris conference has been attempting to reconcile the policy of territorial spoliation with the spirit of the league of nations."

Delay in Furnishing Food.
As for the delay in furnishing food to Central Europe, it was declared in administration quarters today that the United States would not accept some of the blame because, notwithstanding the warnings of Herbert Hoover, that the $100,000,000 appropriation was needed immediately to avert an prolonged debate and finally a provision was inserted making it impossible to use this fund to establish credits for any food sold to the people of the Central Empires.

The decision to raise the blockade in the Adriatic is expected to help relieve the situation in Central Europe and the Hungarian episode is likely, in the opinion of the American delegation, to be a timely warning and stimulus to an early agreement.

Amended Draft May Be Made Public in Few Days.

WASHINGTON, March 28.—Publication of the amended draft of the league of nations covenant within a few days, with a provision safeguarding the Monroe Doctrine among its new clauses, is expected by administration officials here as a result of messages received today from members of the American party at Paris.

Officials express entire confidence that President Wilson will insist upon such a provision being in the final draft when it is passed upon by the Council of Ten or by the Peace Conference in plenary session.

PROHIBITION IN WEST VIRGINIA DRIVES ITALIAN MINERS HOME

State Went Dry in 1914 and Men Were Unable to Get Back to Native Land.

CLARKSBURG, W. Va., March 28.—With their pockets bulging with money, the fruits of war-time wages in the coal mines, hundreds of Italians from every community in West Virginia are packing their belongings and preparing to return to Italy.

Prohibition is said to be the principal reason why the Italians want to get back to their native land. The state went dry in 1914 and in hundreds of miners began making plans to return to Italy then, but 30 days later the war came on and they were held here for four years. Wine was the principal beverage of the Italian miners of this section and most of this fluid was homemade.

The State's prohibition law, however, limits the amount of wine that one may make on his own premises to such a small number of gallons that the Italians decided to return to the place where prohibition is a remote worry.

POLISH MEASURE FOR ALLIANCE

Bill Drawn Up for Agreement With Entente Powers.

WARSAW, Wednesday, March 28.—The Foreign Affairs Committee of the Polish Diet has submitted to that body the draft of a bill for the conclusion of an alliance with the Entente Powers, including military, financial and commercial agreements. The bill asks for the incorporation into Poland of those Eastern territories in which the Polish population forms a majority or where Polish culture is predominant.

Desire is expressed that Lithuania ethnographically should form a separate state, which might ultimately be joined to Poland by a free union, according to historical precedent. The Socialists have promised to support the measure, which assures its passage.

Countess Placed in Asylum.

CHICAGO, March 28.—Aurelia Bethlen, who says she is a member of the royalty of Austria-Hungary, was taken to the Chicago Hospital for the Insane today, having been adjudged of unsound mind in the County Court. Countess Bethlen was arrested by Federal agents a week ago as the result of a threatening letter to President Wilson.

DISTILLERS DECIDE TO CONTEST WAR TIME PROHIBITION ACT

Suit Soon to Be Filed on Opinion by Mayor That Law Went Beyond Power of Congress.

CHICAGO, March 28.—A decision to make an early contest of the constitutionality of the war-time prohibition restriction effective July 1, was reached yesterday at the close of a two-day session of the distillers' committee and about 75 officials of as many distilling concerns. Instructions to that effect were given to Levy Mayer, chief counsel for the committee.

The announcement that legality of the agricultural bill's rider, providing for prohibition until demobilization shall have ended, as passed by Congress, Nov. 21, would be attacked in the courts at an early date, was made in an official announcement from George F. Dietrich of Cincinnati, secretary of the committee. Mayer had informed the committee that in his opinion the act exceeded the power of Congress and that its constitutionality, force, effect and interpretation were involved in serious doubt.

PUPILS GET BUSINESS IDEAS

Irving School Has Corporation With Imaginary Capital.

To give its scholars practical help in business methods, the Irving School, 3329 North Twenty-fifth street, has organized the Irving Mercantile Corporation, with an imaginary capital of $200,000, and with stockholders, officers and directors chosen from the student body. One of the departments is devoted to banking, the "money" deposited by each pupil being his daily class marks. For instance, a pupil receiving an average grade of 90 in his studies on a certain day will deposit "$90" in the bank.

A feature of the school's business department is an open meeting held once a month which is addressed by some business man. The March meeting was held yesterday. The speaker was R. L. Gurney, manager of the savings department of the American Trust Co., who explained in detail the operation of the various departments of the modern bank.

Two Mexicans Arrested.
Two Mexicans, Jose Mendoza, 50 years old, and Charles Juan, 46, who they lived in Chihuahua, Mexico, were arrested last night in a hotel at 17 South Main street, and are held for the Federal authorities. They excited suspicion by mingling with soldiers about Union Station. Mendoza said that they were refugees and had been making a living melting gold articles and making them into nugget stick pins which they sold to soldiers.

PRELIMINARY PEACE TREATY PROBABLY READY BY APRIL 20

which is now at Spa, is expected to arrive soon in Paris on invitation from the Supreme Council to consider questions relative to the securities Germany has to offer in payment for food. Germany has increased her deposit of gold at Brussels as a partial payment for relief supplies, and cargoes will arrive at Hamburg today. Neutrals have also been invited to send financial representatives to confer with delegates to the peace conference regarding German securities sold in their countries which might be applied to payments for food.

Certain Exports Permitted.
It is understood that an agreement was reached at Brussels on March 14 by which Germany was permitted to export certain classes of goods in order to pay for food supplies, and that this agreement now becomes effective.

The embargo on war material, gold, silver and securities will be maintained, but Germany may export such products as coal, dyestuffs, various iron and steel manufactures, sugar, window glass, electrical machinery and other articles. Any of the allied Governments may purchase these products, and their representatives are expected to proceed at once to Cologne to arrange details as the purchase by the allies are not to exceed two-thirds of the surplus of any of these products which Germany has for sale. The other third may be exported as Germany may see fit.

Peace conference circles were disturbed over the paradoxical situation in the Eastern Adriatic. Almost simultaneously with the Italian action in lifting the blockade in that region, the Serbian press published a decree prohibiting importation from and exportation to Italy, thus nullifying the Italian action. Details of the situation have not yet reached Paris.

The Montenegrin Government has peace to the peace conference a memorandum accusing Serbian officials with the following crimes in Montenegro: Massacring, torturing and starving the inhabitants; internment of civilians; forced enrollment of the inhabitants in the Serbian army; confiscation and destruction of private property; destruction of historical monuments; depredation of the country; and various misuses of the white flag. The memorandum accuses Serbia also of invading the territory of its allies and usurping authority. The Montenegrin Government demands the punishment of "the crimes official Serbia has committed against the allies."

SIBERIAN AND NORTH RUSSIAN TROOPS EFFECT A JUNCTION

Archangel Forces Met Eastern Soldiers March 28.—Alfred Kull 100 Bolsheviks.

By the Associated Press.
ARCHANGEL, March 28.—The Russian staff today announced the fulfillment of the expectation of the long-awaited junction between the Siberian forces and the Northern Government troops fighting against the Bolsheviks. The junction occurred March 28 at Ust-Kayma in the Pechora district. The vanguards of the Archangel staff met a party of Siberians on that date.

In the Pechora sector, the allies have encircled and taken the villages of Torosha, after having killed 100 Bolsheviks and captured three machine guns. The allied loss was only one man.

Headquarters reports the shelling of the Vaga sector. In the other sectors, including Bolshoi Ozer, the situation is unchanged.

MOTHER APPOINTED GUARDIAN

Son to Get $10,000 Insurance Policy.

By Jephtha D. Howe, Editor.
Mrs. Kathleen Pultz Hamilton of 7100 Pershing avenue, University City, was today appointed guardian of the estate of her 4-year-old son, John Hamilton, whose estate Probate Judge Hodgdon at Clayton has informed consisted of a $10,000 life insurance policy made out in his favor by the late Jephtha D. Howe, former Republican boss of St. Louis.

Mrs. Hamilton's appointment followed the formal filing of her application, which was made orally a week ago last Monday. With the filing of the application today she furnished a $10,000 bond, on which the Trust Company of St. Louis City is surety.

POINDEXTER SAYS HE IS OPPOSED TO ANY SUPER-LEAGUE

Indicates That Opposed League Plan Is Fear of Encroachment on Sovereignty of U.S.

SENATOR SPEAKS AT THE CITY

Compares Covenant to Kaiser's Plan to Set Up a World Government and Suppression of Freedom.

United States Senator

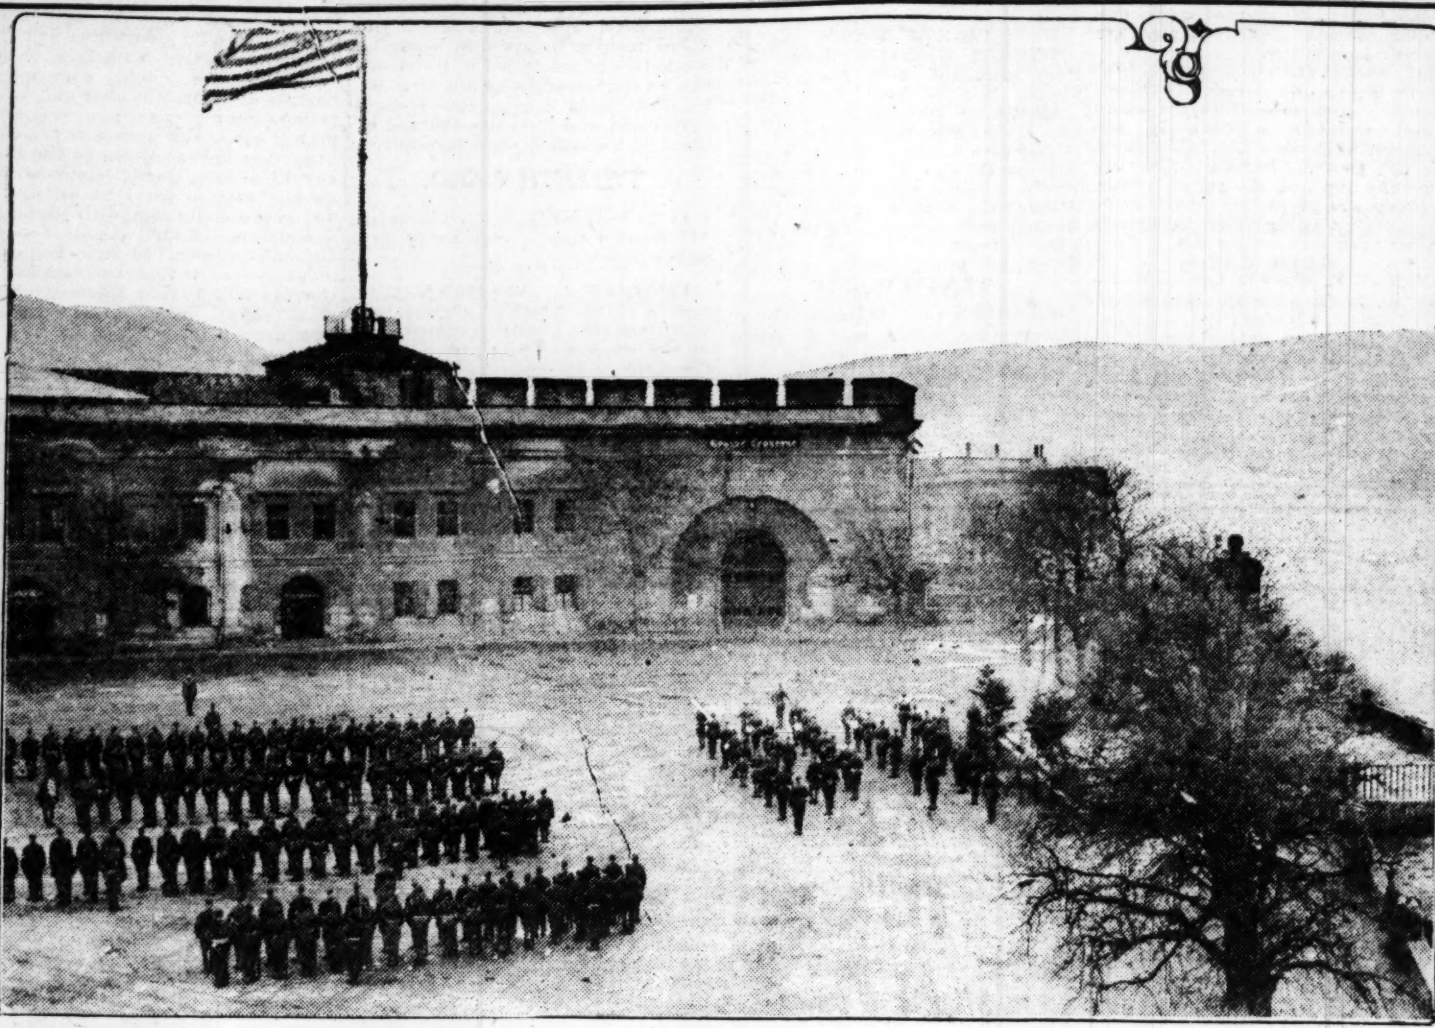

Poincxter of Washington, in his address today before the Club on the league of nations, said that the tentative covenant, based mainly on the proposition that nothing must be done by any way encroach on the sovereignty of the United States, was a super-government which the power to enforce decisions would come in conflict with the rights of this country. He said the plan as finally adopted would provide only for a free nations, acting independently for the preservation of their own interests.

"I have never believed," he said, "that a free discussion of a moment of this kind. I have always believed that we must not let a question anything done by a super-government which the power to enforce decisions would come in conflict with the rights of this country. He said the plan as finally adopted would provide only for a free nations, acting independently for the preservation of their own interests."

"I also have been under the impression that the public with the explicit that it was tentative."

Comments on Paris Dispatches from Paris, published in which it was said with reference to Article 10 of the covenant, it is now explained that the exact text, not only in form of the amendment, but in substance

Raising American Flag Over Germany's Most Historic Fortress

Courtesy of International Film Service.

THE most important single incident in connection with the American occupation of German territory was the ceremony of raising the American flag over Ehrenbreitstein, the most historic fortress on the Rhine. This fortress was destroyed by the French after the Peace at Luneville, but was rebuilt by the Germans immediately after the close of the Napoleonic wars. It stands on a lofty hill at the junction of the Rhine and the Moselle Rivers at Coblenz, and commands an extensive view of the surrounding country.

MAN HELD FOR HOLD-UP IS ESCAPED CONVICT

Arrested for Robbing of Grand Avenue Jewelry Store and Was Under Life Sentence.

He said: "The banner of the revolution in 1776 was upheld by the plain people of the colonies. Men of the type of Lord Robert Cecil, and reactionaries like Mr. Taft and President Lowell of Harvard University either returned to England or served in the British army."

Comments on Paris Dispatches. The Senator referred to news dispatches from Paris, published today, in which it was said with reference to Article 10 of the covenant that "it is now explained that it was not the exact text, but the general principle of the amendment which was given to the press and that hence criticism must be withheld for the present."

"Before the tentative covenant was made public," said Senator Poincaré, "we were told that we must not criticize the league of nations plan because it had the approval of the executive head of the Government. When a tentative draft of the plan was given out we were condemned for criticizing it on its merits, and now we are told not to criticize it because the version given to the public was the exact text, but only the substance. We have been kept in the dark all the time and we have been blamed when we tried to let in a little light on the subject."

"If, as the dispatches say, article 10 in the published tentative covenant was merely the substance and not the wording of the article as actually drawn, it is reasonable to assume that the same is true of other articles, and that we have never seen a correct draft of the covenant, even in its tentative form."

Speaks at City Club. In his speech before the City Club at luncheon Senator Poincaré said that under the proposed constitution of the league of nations, "or any constitution based on similar principles," the autonomy and self-determination of individual nations would be absolutely destroyed. In other words, he said, while pretending to preserve liberty it would, by this very act, at once destroy the liberties of the world, and set up a monstrous military despotism in its place. In comparison with the league of nations plan he described the present entente between Great Britain, France and Italy, "as good example of an enlightened, co-operative association of nations, based on good will, upon common sense to promote freedom and justice in the world, while at the same time preserving national independence."

The necessity for a league of nations at this time could have been avoided, he said, if the United States had formed an alliance with Great Britain and France in 1914 "to enforce peace against Germany." Much of his argument was devoted to an advocacy of outright alliances in preference to an agreement such as is contemplated in the formation of the league of nations.

Interference as a Cause of War. As proposed, he said, the league of nations would bind the United States to participate in the ordinary as well as the extraordinary controversies of the world and would result in too much intimacy with other nations, with the result that we would have to help them settle differences in which we have no direct interest. The league's interference with the self-determination of various peoples, he said, would be a cause instead of a preventive of war.

He made the usual quotations from Washington's farewell address, warning the United States against entanglements in European affairs, and said it would be un-American to leave the determination of vital questions to an executive council largely composed of citizens of other countries.

Referring to the leading advocates of an organization to enforce peace, one of the men arrested at Granite City Wednesday for the theft of $2000 worth of diamonds from the Hender Loan and Jewelry Co., 804 North Grand avenue, and who gave the name of Michael Cummings, 1110 South Ninth street, was identified this morning as Eugene M. Hamilton, under life sentence for murder at the Jefferson City penitentiary, who escaped Oct. 6, 1918, when the penitentiary baseball team was returning to the prison after playing a game here. He admitted the identification.

Hamilton was a member of the baseball team. He was convicted of killing William B. Anderson, an automobile inspector, on 2235 Montana avenue, near 4100 South Broadway, where he and Mrs. Anderson had attended a dance. Upon leaving the dance Mr. and Mrs. Anderson passed a crowd of men on the sidewalk, who made profane remarks. Anderson protested, and was shot by a man in the crowd. The shooting was traced to Hamilton, and he was convicted and sentenced April 7, 1917.

His identification as the escaped convict was accidental. Special Officer August Rogge, who knew Hamilton, noticed "Cummings" at police headquarters as he was being prepared for Bertillon measurements and readily recognized him.

A reward of $50 was offered for his arrest at time of his escape. Hamilton and Edward A. Bray were arrested and charged with the jewelry store robbery, which occurred at 4:15 p. m. March 15. The robbers escaped in an automobile after a running fight with revolvers with Max Hendler, owner of the store. Hendler and others have identified them as the robbers. Both deny that they committed the crime.

CLOSING ARGUMENTS HEARD
IN BUNDY'S TRIAL FOR MURDER

Negro Dentist Called "Archconspirator of Night Assassins" by Counsel for State.

The closing arguments in the case of Leroy N. Bundy, East St. Louis negro dentist, charged with conspiracy to murder Detective Samuel Copeage, who was killed in a riot at East St. Louis July 1, 1917, were made this forenoon in the Circuit Court at Waterloo, Ill.

James A. Farmer, chief counsel for the State, spoke for two hours yesterday afternoon, denouncing Bundy as the "archconspirator" of this band of midnight assassins. He did not ask that the death penalty be imposed in the event the jury finds Bundy guilty, but said the jury should use its own judgment.

In reviewing the testimony, Farmer said that three persons had been in the mob the night of the murder, and that three others had heard him called by name by other members of the mob, and that it was impossible to conclude anything except that Bundy was a member of the mob.

Farmer was followed by A. H. Fredericks for the defense. Fredericks dwelt on the alibi he said Bundy had established, pointing out that the witnesses who corroborated Bundy's claims as to his whereabouts the night of the murder were white persons.

J. R. Hogg Gets Back Car of Hogs by Writ of Replevin. Popular Bluff Man Gets Them From Railroad; Had Been Sold for a Check Not Good.

James R. Hogg of Poplar Bluff, Mo., alleging that a effort had been made to hog him out of a carload of hogs, succeeded in getting the animals back today on a writ of replevin. They were in possession of the Missouri Pacific Railroad, and were located in a pen at Main and Lesperance streets.

Hogg said he sold the hogs, 146 in number, to a man who said he was W. M. Strang at Poplar Bluff, on March 25 for $254.75. The man gave him a check for the amount on the National Bank of Hope, Ark., loaded the hogs in a car and consigned them to Jefferson City. In the meantime, Hogg alleges, he learned from the Hope bank that the check was not good. The railroad refused to surrender the hogs to him without a court order. Hogg did not have the bill of lading.

Henry E. Haas, an attorney, said the man who bought the hogs was not W. M. Strang of Hope, Ark., but a man who represented himself as Strang. The description given by Hogg does not agree with the description of Strang, the attorney says.

PLAINTIFF AGAINST U. R.
A MILLIKEN CONCERN

Intervening Petition in Suit for Receiver Was Planned by Late Chemical Manufacturer.

The Post-Dispatch today learned that the Lead Mining Co. of Dea-ware, which yesterday joined, by means of an intervening petition, in the suit for a receivership and accounting of the United Railways Co. in the Federal Court, was one of the concerns controlled by the late John T. Milliken of St. Louis, and that the mining company's action, in joining the receivership suit, was planned by Milliken before his death, Jan. 21 last.

The Lead Mining Co. filed its intervening petition as a holder of United Railways bonds, and its counsel stated that the petition was in behalf of all the bondholders of the United Railways Co. The action of bondholders in joining the receivership petition is considered the most important recent development in the receivership suit, hearings in which are to begin next Tuesday, before former Judge Henry Lamm as special master.

Milliken Planned Action. Milliken last fall familiarized himself with the facts in the United Railways receivership suit, and consulted with lawyers familiar with the facts. He decided definitely, it was learned, that the Lead Mining Co., which had bought its holdings of United Railways bonds at his direction, should become an intervening petitioner for a receivership. The action of the company in entering the proceeding yesterday was in pursuance of his expressed wish.

The Lead Mining Co., as shown in its petition, holds $205,000 worth of the United Railways Co. 4 per cent first mortgage bonds, maturing July 1, 1934. The total bond issue of the United Railways Co., as stated in the petition, is $55,450,000.

Suit by Stockholder. It could not be learned today whether other large bondholders had joined definitely in support of the receivership suit. A lawyer familiar with the feeling of some of the large St. Louis bondholders said that there was "much unrest" among them.

Contractor Sues for Divorce. Robert L. Murphy alleges Wife Deceives Him. Robert L. Murphy of 832 Providence avenue, Webster Groves, a building contractor with an office in the Murphy Building, East St. Louis, today filed suit for divorce against his wife, Mrs. Hattie Murphy, who he alleges deserted him in October, 1917, and is now living in New York. She was Miss Hattie Rutledge, daughter of a coal dealer.

Murphy states that they have one daughter, 10 years old, who is with her mother. They were married Jan. 15, 1908.

THEODORE ROOSEVELT'S SISTERS
PASS THROUGH ST. LOUIS

Favor Restoring of Old Family Home in New York as Memorial to Her Distinguished Brother.

Theodore Roosevelt's sisters, Mrs. Douglas Robinson and Mrs. W. S. Cowles, were in St. Louis today on their way to New York. They were interned during the war, said Mrs. Cowles' health, and Mrs. Robinson, in their private car at Union Station, told reporters some of the Roosevelt family's idea about a memorial to her distinguished brother.

"Delighted to see you," she exclaimed, in a manner much reminiscent of the former President, when the reporters entered her car. "Sit down, and let's talk," she went on.

Asked about the family's ideas as to a memorial, she said she thought one of the "most beautiful" suggestions was that of the Women's Memorial Committee of New York, which proposes to buy and restore the old Roosevelt family home at 28 East Twentieth street, New York, and there place on exhibition trophies, documents and other interesting things which belonged to the former President.

PAROLES TO BE GRANTED TO 600 HARMLESS ENEMY ALIENS

By the Associated Press. WASHINGTON, March 28.—Attorney-General Palmer, disclosing today that about 4000 enemy aliens were interned during the war, said paroles would be granted to some 600 of the harmless class, others would be repatriated and 900 dangerous persons would be held indefinitely, including about 200 professed members of the I. W. W. or anarchistic organizations whose cases would be referred to the Department of Labor with a view to their deportation.

LENINE SAID TO HAVE ASKED WILSON FOR RECOGNITION

By the Associated Press. PARIS, March 28.—A rumor was current last night that the United States had received a note from Premier Lenine and War Minister Trotsky of the Russian Soviet Government asking recognition for the Government, says Marcel Hutin in the Echo de Paris, today. M. Hutin adds that he "cannot say that President Wilson is disinclined to give the request favorable consideration."

COAL OPERATORS WITHDRAW FROM PRICE CONFERENCES

Demand Assurances of Co-operation of Railroad Administration, Which They Charge With Unfairness. By the Associated Press. WASHINGTON, March 28.—Representatives of the lumber industry held another conference today with the Industrial Board of the Department of Commerce in an effort to reach an agreement on price readjustments.

The attitude to be taken by the board toward the ultimatum of the coal men was the subject of considerable speculation today. The coal industry representatives, after their meeting with the board yesterday, issued a statement through the National Coal Association, declaring they would resume conferences with a view to price adjustment only when the board could assure them of the co-operation of the Railroad Administration and other governmental agencies buying coal. The coal operators charged the Railroad Administration with "unfair practices" in the buying of coal. The Railroad Administration issued a later statement denying the charge.

ST. LOUIS' PLANS FOR PARADE CONSIDERED

War Department Recognizes Desire to Welcome 138th Infantry and 128th Artillery.

By a Staff Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch. WASHINGTON, March 28.—Consideration is being given by the War Department to several plans submitted from St. Louis and Kansas City for "Victory parades," of units of the Thirty-fifth Division, which is scheduled to sail in April.

St. Louis, in the War Department's classification of regiments, is recognized to have a prior claim on the 138th Infantry, and the 128th Field Artillery, and although the department is unable now to announce definite plans, the chances are bright that the city will see a parade of these units as they pass through on their way to a demobilization camp, probably Funston.

Advice applicable to all communities that wish to see their returned men was given by an official of the department today that instead of submitting conflicting schemes a city should decide upon some definite welcoming program, and lay it before the department.

A delegation from Kansas will soon be here to discuss plans for welcoming the Kansas troops. It was said at the department that the idea of this or any other delegation that might come would be gladly received. The smallest unit that will take part in a celebration, it was announced today, is a regiment. This means that companies cannot be detached to visit some other city than that from which the majority of the men of the regiment were recruited.

It was suggested at the department that the residents of small communities having a company or two in a regiment that parades in some other city should invite their men to come back in boats immediately after demobilization for a real homecoming celebration.

RECORDS OF ALDERMANIC NOMINEES WHO WILL BE VOTED ON NEXT TUESDAY

Facts About Them Are Printed Herewith to Enable Voters to Judge of Their Qualifications for the Places They Seek.

THE Post-Dispatch herewith presents, for the information of voters, the facts regarding candidates for President and members of the Board of Aldermen, to be voted on at next Tuesday's election.

As every voter will vote on the entire Aldermanic ticket, the information concerning all the candidates is of interest to all voters. The Aldermen to be elected are for the 14 even-numbered wards, the Second, Fourth, etc., those from the 14 odd-numbered wards having been elected two years ago, for a four years' term.

The candidates for President of the Board, and for Aldermen representing the 14 wards, are:

PRESIDENT.

FLINT GARRISON, Democrat. President and general manager of The Drygoodsman, a trade publication, and president of the Garrison-Wagner Printing Co. Has never held public office. Member board of directors Chamber of Commerce and of sales managers' bureau, and has represented St. Louis business interests on several trade extension tours throughout the Southwest. Has persistently opposed United Railways Co. influence in business organizations and in politics, and wrote minority report of the United Railways committee of the Chamber of Commerce, condemning Mayor Kiel's mill tax and franchise deal with the United Railways Co. Member Executive Committee of the Civic League, which has had active charge of campaign for the recall of Mayor Kiel. Wrote the present constitution of the Civic League, which aligned that body definitely against privilege-seeking corporations. Is a close student of political and economic problems, and a believer in and defender of democracy. Has not been an active party worker, and filed for the party nomination at the solicitation of the Democratic City Committee, and without making any pledge of a political character. Resides at 5525 Barmen avenue.

Alice Approved U. R. Deal.

LOUIS P. ALOE, Republican, incumbent. President A. S. Aloe Optical Co.; resides 38 Kingsbury place. Former member Republican City Committee, from the Twenty-fifth Ward. Was Republican (minority) member of the Election Board for two years, under Gov. Dockery's administration. Was Republican candidate for City Collector in 1905, but was defeated. Was a member of the Board of Freeholders which framed present city charter, and was a candidate, at the first election thereafter, for the new office of President of the Board of Aldermen, but was defeated in the Republican primary by A. H. Frederick. Was elected in November, 1916, to the vacancy created by Frederick's enforced resignation from the office. He voted for the so-called compromise bill, bestowing a 30-year franchise on the United Railways Co.

As a member of the Board of Estimate and Apportionment, Aloe approved of Mayor Kiel's mill tax and franchise deal with the United Railways Co., which involved the dismissal, by the city, of its appeal in the suit attacking the franchise of the Jefferson avenue line. This dismissal had the effect of extending the Jefferson avenue franchise until 1939, and City Counselor Dues made public a stipulation, approved by himself and the counsel for the United Railways, to the effect that other franchises would be similarly extended. Aloe declared he did not know of this feature of the agreement, and did not approve of the extension of other franchises than that of the Jefferson line. The Mayor, in outlining the deal to the Board of Estimate and Apportionment, had said it would remove the cloud from the company's franchises, and Comptroller Nolte later said he understood this to apply to all franchises, but Aloe insists he did not so understand it. He refused to vote on the report of a committee of the Board of Aldermen, whitewashing the Mayor in this deal. His reason was that, as a member of the Board of Estimate, he was a party to the agreement.

Haller Runs as Nonpartisan.

JULIUS HALLER, Nonpartisan. Now Alderman from the Twenty-fourth Ward; elected as a Republican. Former member City Council. Has opposed Mayor Kiel's United Railways policy and was only member of board to vote against 30-year franchise "compromise" ordinance and against approving report of committee whitewashing the Mayor in the recent deal. Was elected vice president of the first Board of Aldermen in 1915, and served as president for a time after the enforced resignation of A. H. Frederick. Haller was deposed, through opposition of party organization, and Nathan H. Hall was elected vice president. Haller ran in Republican primary in 1917 for nomination for Mayor, but had no organization support, and was defeated by Mayor Kiel. The party machine defeated him for renomination as Alderman in the recent primary. Vice president City Trust Co. Resides 3157 Fortia avenue.

Brandt the Socialist Candidate.

WILLIAM M. BRANDT, Socialist. Secretary and organizer Socialist party here; associate editor of St. Louis Labor. Has been nominated for various public offices and was the party's nominee for Mayor in 1917. An adherent of the so-called St. Louis platform of the Socialist party, an anti-war document, adopted after the United States had entered the war. This platform had the support of Eugene V. Debs, Vice President and Kate Richards

Charles E. Russell and other former leaders of the party.

BOARD OF ALDERMEN.

(No Nonpartisan or Socialist Candidates.)

SECOND WARD.

JAMES J. WALSH, Democrat, contractor, resides 3115 North Twelfth street. Has never held public office.

EDWARD SCHOLL, Republican, incumbent, 2125A Bremen avenue, hide and tallow manufacturer. Former member of the old House of Delegates and was one of 21 delegates, in 1914, to support the Alton & Mississippi free bridge approach, a real estate speculation backed by "Cap" Troll. In backing this scheme the delegates obstructed the passage of Delegate Hines' bond issue bill, under which the bridge was finally completed. Business and civic organizations condemned the action of these delegates. Scholl voted, in the Board of Aldermen, for the United Railways 30-year "compromise" franchise bill and for the report whitewashing Mayor Kiel in the deal.

He also voted for the bill authorizing "Tony" Stuever's

Highlands Fire Clay Co. to mine clay under a portion of Forest Park.

FOURTH WARD.

JOHN P. CONNOR, Democrat, saloon keeper at 1201 North Broadway and proprietor of a rooming house at 591 Biddle street. Member of last Legislature, defeated for re-election to present Legislature.

WILLIAM F. OTTO, incumbent, 1455 North Nineteenth street, insurance agent. Active in politics for many years; formerly a clerk in the Recorder of Deeds office. Otto voted for the United Railways 30-year franchise bill and the report whitewashing the Mayor's United Railways deal; also for "Tony" Stuever's Forest Park clay mining bill.

SIXTH WARD.

FRANK R. MOSER, Dem., proprietor St. Louis Scale Co., 205 South Third street. Resides at American Hotel. Has never held public office.

WILLIAM L. TAMME, Rep., incumbent, 1812A Market street. Theater accessory business. Was the machine candidate for License Collector in the Republican primary last August, but was defeated by Oliver Chapman, chairman of the Street

Sewers and Wharves Committee, and has supported the Mayor's policy of vacating streets and alleys without compensation to the city. Voted for the United Railways 30-year franchise bill and the report whitewashing the Mayor's United Railways deal.

EIGHTH WARD.

THOMAS BASTIAN, Dem., retired merchant, 1503 South Ninth street. Has not held public office.

EDWARD HIRSH, Rep., salesman, 2000 South Second street. Clerk in the City Sewer Department until one month ago, when he resigned. Was nominated without opposition, through the support of Louis (Tub) Becker, committeeman in the ward, who refused to support Edward Bergt, incumbent, for renomination.

TENTH WARD.

CHARLES J. DORAN, Dem., chiropractor, 2856A Salena street. Has never held public office.

OTTO HAMPE, Rep., insurance agent, 3844A Iowa avenue. Voted for United Railways 30-year franchise bill and report whitewashing the Mayor's United Railways deal, also "Tony" Stuever's Forest Park clay mining bill. Hampe and Alderman Kraemann of the Twenty-second Ward are both agents for the Jefferson Mutual Fire Insurance Co. In April, 1916, it became known that they had jointly written a $100,000 liability policy on the boilers of the Union Electric Light and Power Co. A few months before this, a special committee of the Board of Aldermen had under investigation the feasibility of building a municipal electric light plant, and the rates charged by the Union Electric were scrutinized.

TWELFTH WARD.

C. E. WALKER, Dem., physician, 416 Kansas street. Has never held public office.

CHARLES A. NEUMANN, Rep., tailor, 6418A Virginia avenue, recently resigned as city committeeman of the ward, and was supported by the machine at the primary. He has never held public office.

FOURTEENTH WARD.

JEROME L. FUERST, Dem., 2829 Oregon avenue. City salesman for a tea and coffee company. Has never held public office.

GUS A. BAUR, Rep., incumbent, 2215 Missouri avenue. Saloon keeper, former city committeeman and former Deputy Sheriff. His saloon is patronized by politicians and frequenters of the Municipal Courts building. Joe Mount, who was a partner of Baur, was shot and killed in the saloon about a year ago, after he had killed two men who attacked him. The police attributed the tragedy to a gang feud. Baur is frequently seen in the criminal courts, and occasionally signs bail bonds for defendants. Baur voted for the United Railways 30-year franchise bill, and for the report whitewashing the Mayor's United Railways deal; also "Tony" Stuever's Forest Park clay mining bill.

WILBUR C. SCHWARTZ, Rep., incumbent, lawyer, reside at 3339 Bell avenue. Voted for United Railways 30-year franchise bill and the report whitewashing the Mayor's United Railways deal, also for "Tony" Stuever's Forest Park clay mine bill.

TWENTY-SECOND WARD.
JOHN F. HINES, Democrat, retired building contractor, 3919 Page boulevard. Was a member of the House of Delegates from 1913 to 1915 and was the introducer of the measure known as the Hines bond issue bill, under which the money was provided for the east approach of the free bridge. This bill was passed by the Municipal Assembly, after its passage had been demanded by the Business Men's League and by civic organizations in order to complete the bridge, which stood unfinished. It was blocked for considerable time in the House of Delegates by the 21 members who supported the so-called Alton & Mississippi approach. Among these 21 were Delegate Scholl, now Republican nominee for re-election to the Board of Aldermen from the Second Ward, and Delegate Groeschel, now the Republican nominee from the Twenty-fourth Ward. The Alton & Mississippi plan was essentially a real estate speculation and the Post-Dispatch finally established the fact that "Cap" Troll, a ward politician, held a $22,000 mortgage on the land which was the sole asset of the Alton & Mississippi, a paper railroad corporation. Following this exposure the opposition to the Hines measure collapsed. Hines was also the author of a bill to make it possible for the city to acquire the property of the Southern Traction Co. of Illinois, which had obtained a franchise, from the previous assembly, to run cars on the upper deck of the bridge. This measure was amended by a conference committee, in such a manner as to annul its purpose.

HERMAN C. KRALEMAN, Republican, incumbent, insurance broker, 4444 Elmbank avenue, voted for the United Railways 30-year franchise bill, the report whitewashing the Mayor's United Railways deal and for "Tony" Stuever's Forest Park clay mining bill. Kraleman and Alderman Hampe, as told in a foregoing paragraph about Hampe, jointly wrote a $100,000 liability policy on the Union Electric Co. boilers.

TWENTY-FOURTH WARD.
NILS GRANT, Democrat, real estate agent, 7008 Hancock avenue, president of the Citizens' Referendum League, which obtained the petitions for a referendum vote on the United Railways 30-year franchise ordinance, last summer. Some of the petitions were stolen by burglars, but the deficiency thus created was made up, and the holding of an election was averted only by the repeal of the bill. The league has taken part in the movement to recall Mayor Kiel.

CHARLES A. GROESCHEL, Republican, 5320 Arsenal street, master plumber. Member Republican City Committee and former member of the old House of Delegates, 1913-1915. Voted for the Alton & Mississippi Free Bridge approach, which was a real estate speculation backed by "Cap" Troll. In so voting he was one of 21 delegates who obstructed Delegate Hines' bill for the completion of the Free Bridge by a bond issue for the building of an east approach. Groeschel was selected by the organization to defeat Julius Halter, only member of the Board of Aldermen who voted against the United Railways 30-year franchise bill and the report whitewashing the Mayor's deal.

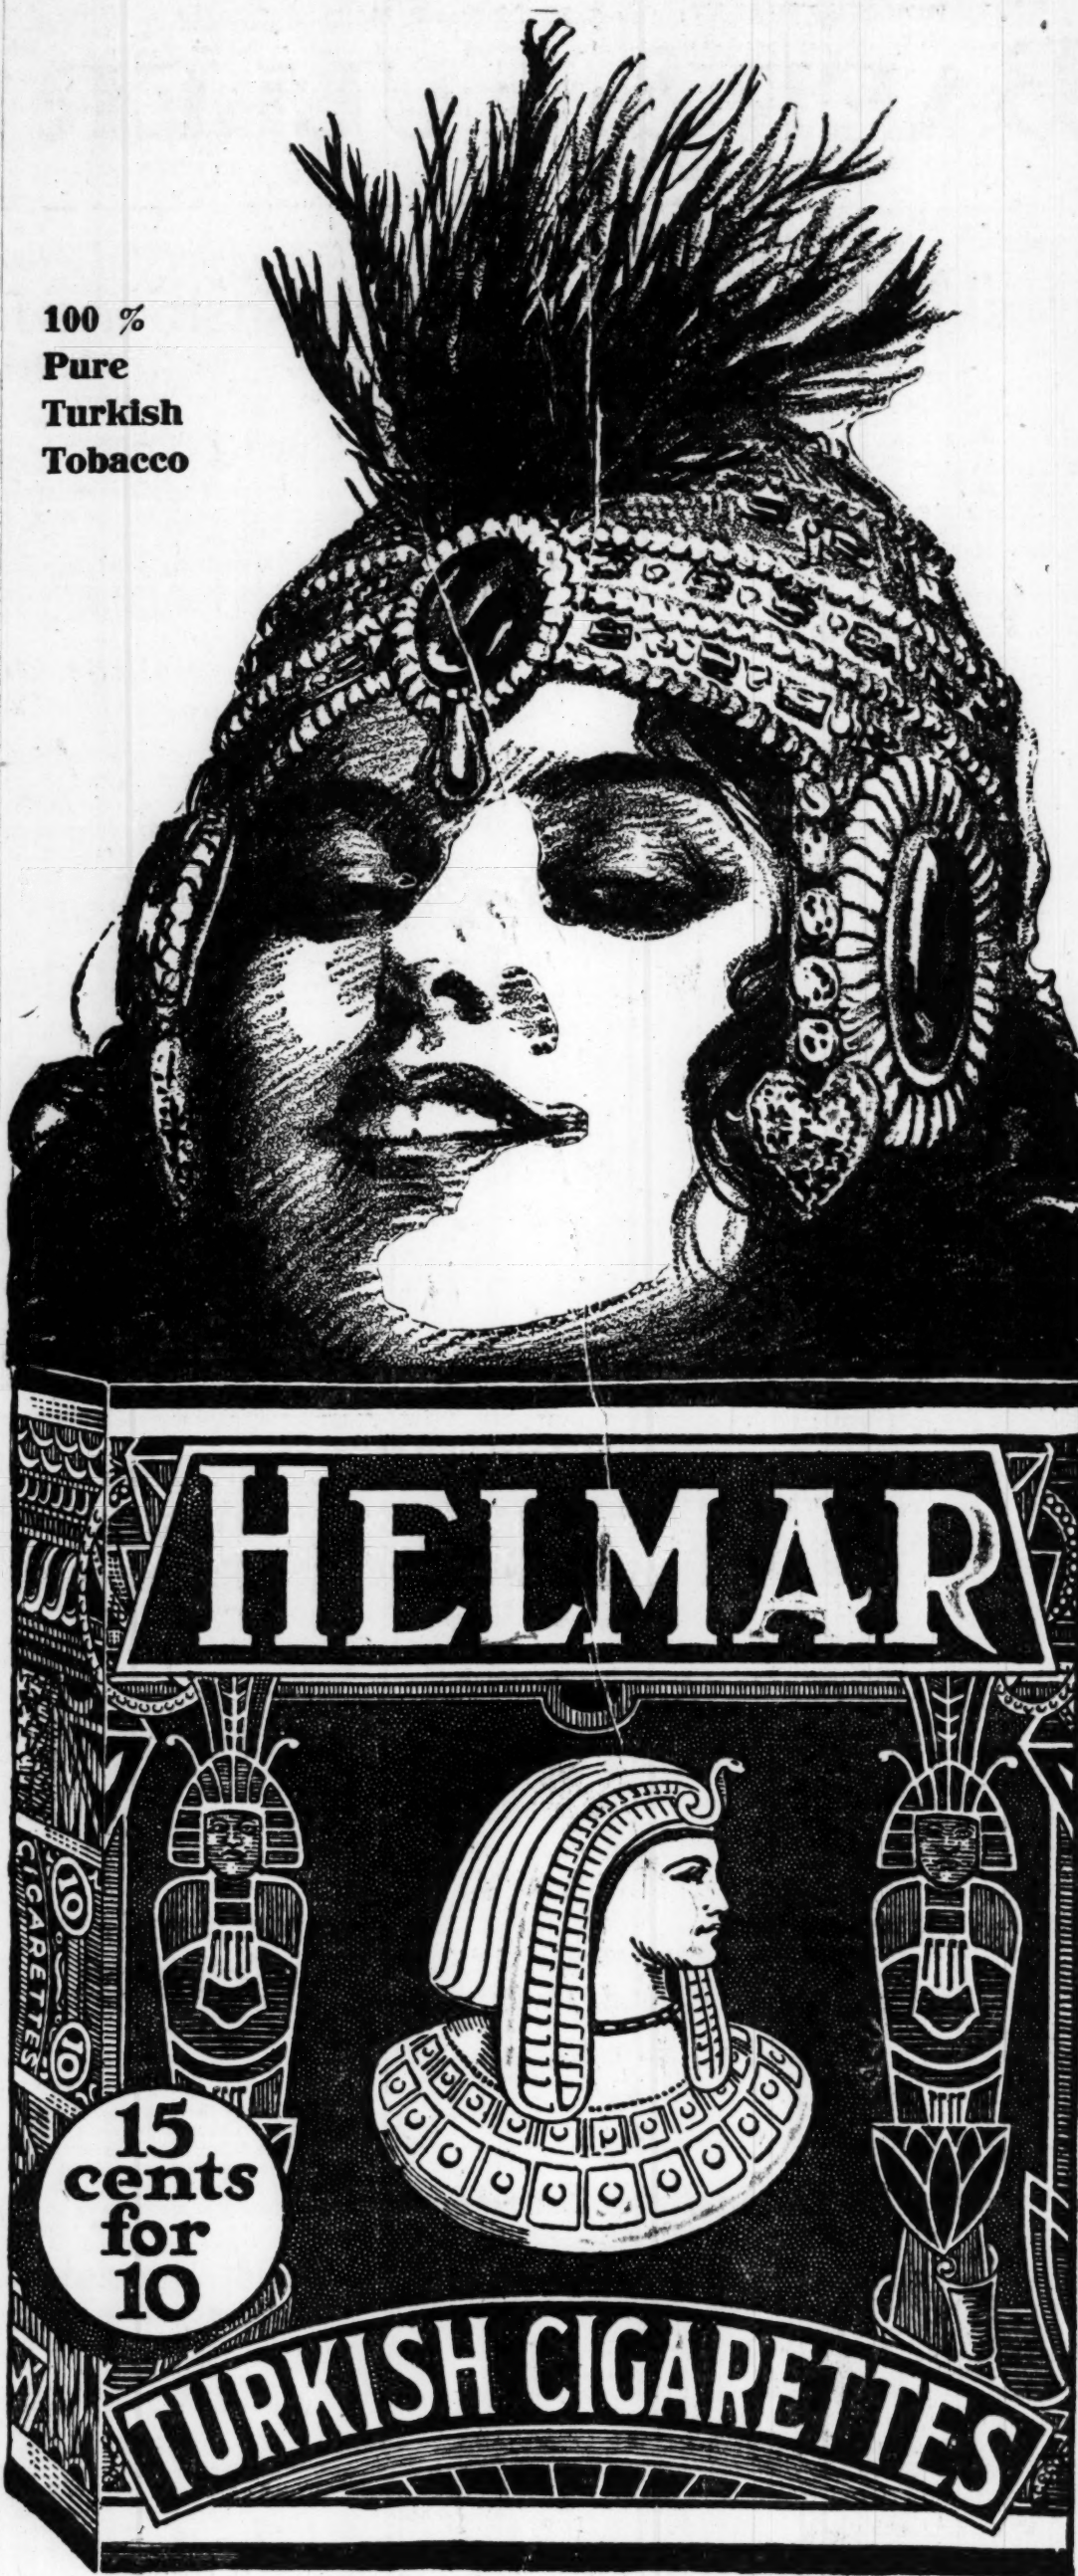

TWENTY-SIXTH WARD.
DAVID NELSON, Democrat, 4733 St. Louis avenue, Manager Empress Theater on Olive street west of Grand avenue. Former member State Senate from 1902-1906, and served on committees on Labor, Mines, National Guard, Printing, Institutions and Public Health.

RALPH H. EILERS, Republican, incumbent, publisher of Sunday school literature, resides, 1627A North Euclid avenue. Voted for United Railways 30-year franchise bill and for report whitewashing the Mayor in United Railways deal. Was supported by party machine in the primary.

TWENTY-EIGHTH WARD.
GEORGE F. DOUGHERTY, Dem., lawyer, 6135 McPherson avenue. Has not held public office.
LUKE E. HART, Rep., incumbent, 4131 Washington avenue, lawyer. Voted for United Railways 30-year franchise bill and report whitewashing the Mayor's United Railways deal; also for "Tony" Stuever's Forest Park clay mining bill. Hart was criticized by members of the Forest Park Residents' Association for appearing as counsel for the Parker-Washington Co., before the Board of Public Service, to obtain a permit to lay a street track across Audubon avenue to its material supply plant on Taylor avenue, between Duncan and Audubon avenues. The Parker-Washington Co., street paving contractors, do a great deal of city work. Hart was assistant City Attorney before his election to the Board of Aldermen, and his duty in that position was to prosecute police court defendants. He was elected to the Board, in 1915, by a plurality of 33,299, one of the largest pluralities ever attained in an election here.

PACKERS' CONTROL OF FOOD DESCRIBED TO SUFFRAGISTS

Facts Brought Out at Inquiry in Operations of "Big Five" Presented by Consumers' League Official.

PUBLIC MEETING AT THE ODEON TONIGHT

Dr. Anna Howard Shaw Will Preside, and Gov. Allen of Kansas Will Speak—Community Singing a Feature.

The control of the "Big Five," a combine of Chicago packing firms, over the food prices, was described in an address delivered today by Miss Jessie R. Haver, legislative representative of the National Consumers' League, before the National American Woman Suffrage Association, in convention at Hotel Statler.

Miss Haver cited facts developed in the investigation by the Federal Trade Commission into the packers' methods and the extent of their operations. It was shown, she said, that the "Big Five" control not only the meat business but have a similar control over the principal food substitutes, eggs, cheese, poultry, milk, butter, fish and all kinds of vegetable products, within recent years have gone into the breakfast food business, the canning of fruits and vegetables, and are now dealing in staple groceries and vegetables, such as rice, sugar, potatoes, beans and coffee. This control, she said, covers the price paid the producer of food at one end and the price charged the consumer at the other end.

"Going Into Clothing," she said, is an example of what happens when one of the "Big Five" undertakes its sale. Just at the time that you were asked to cook rice instead of potatoes, so that potatoes might be sent to Europe, Mr. Armour went into the rice market, and during 1917 he sold 16,000,000 pounds of rice, and during that year the wholesale price of rice increased 65 per cent.

"The list of products or commodities commonly dealt in or held out in price lists as regularly dealt in by the packing concerns includes, in addition to all the conceivable products relating to meat and meat by-products, the following items: Bearings for railroad cars, binding and twine, boxes, brass castings for recoil mechanism in heavy ordnance, combs, builders' hardware, building material, bumping posts for railroads, Chrysler cloth, Hastings and appliances for use in manufacturing refrigerator cars, curled hair, cement, doors and windows, packing house machinery, etc. So that, not only are these concerns selling their manufactured products, but they enter the manufacturing business in products in which they enter the market as buyers. Through the control of the hide and leather markets, and more recently the woolen markets, they are now branching into the field of clothing.

"Mr. Stuart Chase, testifying for the Federal Trade Commission, stated that the total profits of the packers as published by themselves in their annual report and amended by such analysis as the Federal Trade Commission has made, for the year 1917, were 95 odd million dollars, as against 18 odd million dollars in 1912. A summary of the statements made by the packers themselves on their stock dividends shows that the amount of profits capitalized in a little over three years by three of the packers is very nearly as much as the capitalization of all five at the beginning of the world war.

"The total sales of the five packers, according to their own statements, amounted to $2,100,000,000 in 1917, and increased to $3,000,000,000 in 1918, half a Liberty Loan."

Miss Swift Contribution. Miss Haver also read testimony taken before the Senate Agricultural Committee regarding the political and legislative finances of the packers. In this inquiry it was brought out that the women who were conducting the anti-suffrage campaign in New York asked the Swift firm for a contribution of $100, and that the firm's legal counsel advised that the contribution should be made, with the understanding that it should not be made public, as the counsel recognized it was likely that suffrage would "sweep the country."

This incident served chiefly to develop the fact that the Swift firm was opposed to woman suffrage. The speaker also outlined the proposed Smith-Sims bill, to insure free competitive markets.

Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, national president, and Mrs. Helen H. Gardner, fifth vice president, presided at this morning's session. Mrs. Phillips North Moore of St. Louis extended greetings on behalf of the National Council of Women. Talks on the State campaigns in Louisiana, where suffrage was not won, and in Wisconsin, where the suffragists did win, were made by Mrs. Lydia Wyckoff Holmes and Mrs. Ben Hooper, respectively.

Odeon Meeting Tonight. Tonight's meeting at the Odeon will be the chief public demonstration of the convention. The Rev. Dr. Anna Howard Shaw, honorary president, will preside.

The principal speakers are to be Miss Helen Fraser, who is declared in the printed program to be "Great Britain's foremost woman speaker," and Gov. Henry Allen of Kansas. The invocation will be pronounced by Dean Carroll M. Davis of Christ Church Cathedral, and community singing will be led by Mrs. W. D. Steele.

Mrs. Ella Meredith, chairman of a sectional program in the afternoon, was scheduled to discuss the theme "What Women Voters Can Do Toward Improvement of Election Methods and Customs." This was to be followed by a debate on the respective merits of party allegiance and independent action, and means by which women may become a responsible part of political bodies.

At last night's public meeting in the Odeon prolonged applause followed the reading of a cable dispatch saying that the commission drafting the constitution of the league of nations had voted to recognize the principle of woman suffrage by providing that the offices of the league of nations may be held by women, as well as men.

Mrs. Catt, in speaking on the announcement, said the recognition of women did not come by accident, but states were made by representatives from Indiana, Vermont, Nebraska, South Dakota, Michigan, Oklahoma and Texas.

The Woman's Bar Association of Missouri will give a dinner this evening at the American Hotel in honor of the lawyer delegates to the suffrage convention. Miss Clarissa Brockstedt, president of the local women lawyer's organization, will preside. The St. Louis women's chapter of the Bar Association numbers 20 members, and will be augmented by a considerable number of women law students.

Among the speakers invited are Mrs. Catherine Waugh McCulloch, president of the Women's Bar Association of Illinois; Mrs. Lilla Monroe, chairman of the Kansas Women's Bar Association; Miss K. H. Starbuck, of Albany, N. Y., and Miss Libbie E. Goldman of St. Joseph, Mo.

GERMAN PLANES TO CARRY FOOD

By the Associated Press.
PARIS, March 28.—German bombing airplanes of the Friedrichshafen type, which were surrendered under a clause of the armistice, will be used by the Department of Civilian Aviation in transporting foodstuffs between Paris and Bordeaux. The airplanes will be equipped to carry three tons of parcels and bundles.

Before the end of this week the department plans to have in operation an aerial post between Paris and Valenciennes.

THIN PEOPLE SHOULD TAKE PHOSPHATE

Nothing like Plain Bitter-Phosphate to Put on Firm, Healthy Flesh and to Increase Strength, Health and Nerve Force.

Judging from the countless preparations and treatments which are continually being advertised for the purpose of making thin people fleshy, developing arms, neck and bust, and revealing their hollow and angular by the soft curved lines of health and beauty, there are evidently thousands of men and women who really feel their excessive thinness.

Thinness and weakness are usually due to starved nerves. Our bodies need more phosphate than contained in modern foods. Physicians claim that they maintain that the supply of phosphate as well as the organic phosphate, which is inexpensive and sold by J. & J. Druggists, Drug Co. and Weston Drug Co. in St. Louis, and most all druggists under a guarantee of satisfaction or money back. By feeding the nerves directly and by supplying the body cells with the necessary phosphoric food element, phosphate quickly produces a welcome transformation in the appearance; the increase in weight frequently being astonishing.

This increase in weight also carries with it a general improvement in the health. Nervousness, sleeplessness and lack of energy which nearly always accompany excessive thinness, soon disappear; dull eyes become bright, and pale cheeks glow with the bloom of perfect health.

CAUTION.—Although phosphate is indispensable for relieving nervousness, sleeplessness and general weakness, it should not be given the remarkable flesh-growing properties, be used by anyone who does not desire to put on flesh.—ADV.

Mrs. Waller Edwards, president of the Confederate Dames' Chapter, is general chairman of the arrangements, and Mrs. W. L. Kline, one of the past State presidents, will preside as toastmistress.

Mrs. Edmond W. La Beaume of 4710 Westminster place, who was called East on account of the illness of her daughter, Miss Jeannette Matthews, who is a student at Wellesley College, returned home last night.

Miss Elizabeth Whitehead of Detroit arrived this morning to be the guest of Miss Marjorie Abbott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Augustus L. Abbott of 5449 Maple avenue. Miss Abbott entertained informally at tea this afternoon for her guest, and also for Miss Ella Curlee, whose marriage to Ensign Walter Clarke of New Orleans will be an event of next Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Neill A. McMillan of 6500 Forsythe boulevard, who returned a few days ago from a visit to Atlantic City, will entertain this evening with a dinner party, at which the guests of honor will be Mrs. Joseph Mahoney of Dallas, Tex., a director of the National Suffrage Association, Mrs. Henry Wade Rogers of New York, treasurer of the association, and Miss Helen Fraser of London, England, who is to be one of the speakers at the mass meeting tonight at the Odéon.

Miss Gladys Flarsheim, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Flarsheim of 4619 Westminster place, has chosen Monday, April 7, as the date for her marriage to Dietrich Arnold Singer of Galveston, Tex. The wedding will take place at the Columbian Club at 7 o'clock in the evening, with Dr. Leon Harrison officiating. Miss Flarsheim will have for her matron of honor, Mrs. Fred Salomon, her sister, Miss Miriam Flarsheim will be maid of honor, and another sister, Miss Helen Flarsheim, will be the bridesmaid. Mr. Singer will have for his best man, David Freeman of New Orleans, and the ushers will be Ferdinand Baer and Ira Baer of St. Paul, Maurice Epstein of Houston, Tex., and Lawrence Axman of New York. Only the relatives and intimate friends will be present at the marriage.

A recently announced engagement is that of Miss Laura Boone, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Stuart Gordon Boone, to Austin Mills Visher, son of Prof. and Mrs. Horace Z. Visher of Ypsilanti, Mich. The wedding will be an event of the early autumn.

Mrs. Edward M. Gould, who formerly resided in St. Louis, but who has recently removed to California to live, is the guest of Mrs. John A. Holmes and her daughter, Mrs. William H. Keech of 9 Portland place. A number of informal affairs have been given for Mrs. Gould during her stay. She is a sister of Mrs. W. W. La Beaume of the Cathedral Apartments, who has been spending the late winter in Arizona.

Miss Rosalind Thomas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edmond A. Thomas of 4424 Westminster place, who has been visiting for the past several weeks in the East, and her sister, Miss Beatrice Thomas, who is a student at Vassar, will arrive home tomorrow.

The Contemporary Club held its 101st meeting last night at the Statler Hotel, at which Mrs. Margaret Wade Deland, the well-known author, who has recently returned from doing work in France, was the principal speaker. Over 250 members were present and Mrs. Albert H. Brueggeman, who is assistant secretary of the club, introduced Mrs. Deland and presided at the meeting.

The marriage of Miss Rosabelle Campbell, daughter of the Rev. Dr. George A. Campbell, pastor of the Union Avenue Christian Church, and Mrs. Campbell, to Lieut. Charles E. ALOE SPEAKS AT FOUR MEETINGS, GARRISON AT TWO Republican Continues His Argument That Democratic State Administration Is Responsible for 6-Cent Fare.

DEFENDS ACTION OF DAUES IN THE CASE

Garrison Points Out City's Part in Agreeing to $60,000,000 Valuation—N. E. Reed and Col. Curlee

The responsibility for a 6-cent street car fare in St. Louis again was discussed last night by Flint Garrison and Louis P. Aloe, opposing candidates for President of the Board of Aldermen at the municipal election next Tuesday. Garrison spoke before two ward meetings and Aloe before four.

Garrison reiterated that the city's fight against the fare increase from 5 cents was imperfect and did not fully protect the interest of the strap hangers. Aloe's defense was to blame the Democratic State administration, which upheld the power of the commission to fix fares, were bodies of Democratic majorities.

Garrison pointed out that the action of the Public Service Commission was in a large measure determined by the action of the Republican city administration in agreeing with the company that $60,000,000 should be presented as the valuation of the company's properties, as a basis for fare fixing. The last inventory valuation of the company's property placed the valuation under $40,000,000.

Aloe excused the failure of City Counselor Daves to pursue the people's fight into the United States Supreme Court by a statement that the United States Supreme court previously had decided a case "identical" with the St. Louis case which was brought to it from the State of Georgia. He denied that the city legal department was presuming to sit as a judge of what the United States Supreme Court might do, but declared that it was only exercising "sound logic."

He referred to the statement by Garrison that the action of the City Counselor of Kansas City in the 6-cent fare case was an example of how the City Counselor of St. Louis should have proceeded, if sincerely fighting the fare advance.

Not Parallel Cases, Aloe Says. Aloe declared that the cases were not parallel because the Kansas City street railway crossed into Kansas and became an interstate carrier. Garrison in his speeches points out the primary basis of appeal in Kansas City was that the Missouri court denied the right of a city to contract for public service in violation of a provision of the Constitution of the United States. Garrison declares that the interstate phase was supplementary and was only an example of the thoroughness with which the Kansas City administration combated the 6-cent fare.

Aloe said that an recent endorsement of Garrison by J. Lionberger Davis, former president of the Chamber of Commerce, could be explained by the fact that Davis was a vice president of the St. Louis Union Trust Co., which, he said, was trying to force a receivership for the United Railways so that it could seize the company for $30,000,000, plus $12,000,000 of underlying bonds. He declared that the trust company controlled the United Railway 4-per-cent bonds.

Aloe declared that he accepted the challenge of Garrison that they should join in an effort to have the Jefferson avenue franchise affirmed suit reopened by the Missouri Supreme Court. He announced that he gave permission for Garrison to use his name in any petition to the Supreme Court.

Garrison's Comment on Attitude. Garrison, in that connection, was pointing out in his last night's meeting that Aloe's expressed approval of Kiel's abandonment of the franchise fight, linked with his statement that any similar future action should be by the Board of Aldermen, placed Aloe in the "astounding" light of approving a wrong, but disapproving of any intention to do wrong in a like manner in the future.

The Democratic nominee will address four rallies tonight: Groatan Hall, 1441 Chouteau avenue; Stuart's Hall, 5545 Easton avenue; Polish-American Hall, 1928 Cass avenue, and at 1442 Warren street.

ANNEXATION BILL MEETING

Delegation to Go to Jefferson City in Support of Measure.

The "Greater St. Louis" conference, composed of 200 representatives of various civic organizations, met at the Chamber of Commerce yesterday and made plans for the sending of between 50 and 75 delegates to Jefferson City next Wednesday to attend the hearing of the enabling act, permitting a vote by St. Louis and St. Louis County on the annexation proposition. Jackson Johnson, president of the Chamber of Commerce, presided.

Wellston and Kenwood Springs, in the county, were represented and representatives stated that the people of those two suburbs are strongly in favor of becoming part of St. Louis. Several women's organizations of the Missouri Federation of Women's Clubs spoke. Other women present were Mrs. Charles Jordan, Mrs. J. W. Bray, Miss Belle Tausig and Miss Nellie Richards, representing the Wednesday Club; Miss Martha E. Cotton, Federation of Industrial Girls' Club; Mrs. John S. Payne, Mrs. A. E. Reison and Mrs. F. H. IRON KETTLE CAME TO AMERICA IN MAYFLOWER Originally Property of Gov. Bradford of Massachusetts. It is Presented to Historical Society.

BANGOR, Me., March 28.—The Bangor Historical Society has just come into possession of an iron kettle which came to America in the Mayflower, the utensil belonging to Gov. William Bradford of Massachusetts.

The kettle has been in the Wasgatt family since 1802 and was the gift of Miss Sarah Wasgatt of Hampden. She received it from her mother, Mrs. T. Wasgatt, who received it from Mrs. Polly Thompson of North Auburn, who, in turn, received it from Dura Bradford, great-grandson of

Gov. Bradford. Thus the historic character of the kettle is established beyond dispute.

Miss Wasgatt had received numerous flattering offers by collectors, all of which she declined, wishing that the piece finally rest with the Bangor society.

FUNERAL OF P. F. SHIRMER

Was One of Oldest Members of Merchants' Exchange.

Funeral services for Philip F. Shirmmer, 83 years old, retired grain dealer, who died yesterday at his home, 5009 Maple avenue, were held this afternoon to Bellefontaine Cemetery.

He was a Union soldier in the Civil War, and was one of the oldest members of the Merchants' Exchange. He entered the grain business in St. Louis after the Civil War, continuing in it until 1886. He was later appointed Assessor of Special Taxes in St. Louis, holding this position until 1901. After that he was not in active business, but continued to be a daily visitor at the Merchants' Exchange. He was born in Galena, Ill.

BLINDING SNOW IN NEW YORK

Combined With Heavy Wind and Ice Streets It Causes Many Accidents.

NEW YORK, March 28.—New York experienced a somewhat topsy-turvy early morning today, due to a heavy wind, blinding snow and icy sidewalks and streets. Surface cars collided, signs and fences were blown down and trees uprooted, pedestrians were knocked over by street cars, automobiles or mail trucks, a woman was blown into the East River but was rescued, an ice-covered rail caused a short circuit that set fire to an elevated train and the morning rush hour traffic generally was hampered. A dozen persons were injured, several being taken to hospitals.

ANOTHER WEIL VICTORY!!

40% IS WORTH SAVING!

Men! Young Men!

It Is a Waste of Money to Miss This Stupendous Sale of Crisp New Easter Clothes!!

Our policy of buying and selling for spot cash has again proven to be the RIGHT way! If we had followed the usual custom we would have placed our orders for Spring goods last October, at a time when clothing had reached the very pinnacle of high prices! That was what 95% of the merchants of America did! And as a result they were compelled to pay the highest prices ever known since the Civil War! BUT WE WAITED!! Then came the signing of the armistice, and rapidly declining prices! Manufacturers everywhere became panic-stricken and anxious to unload all their surplus stocks! That was OUR chance, and THEN, and not until then, did we buy a single dollar's worth of Spring merchandise! As a result of this policy our buyers were able to secure thousands upon thousands of dollars' worth of crisp, new Spring Clothing for men, young men and boys, at practically our own figures! 40% is what we saved! and 40% is what YOU can save in this sale Saturday! Don't waste your money—come direct to this big store and supply your clothing needs for Easter!

A WORD OF WARNING!!

Some unscrupulous solicitors are daily infesting Washington avenue and annoying the public in general. Some of them have even gone so far as to hand out OUR business cards (which they obtained by trickery), and tell our customers that the Well Clothing Co. has branch stores on certain side streets. Don't be deceived! WE HAVE NO BRANCH STORES, and the sole object of these unscrupulous solicitors is to lure the people to these little stores on the side streets, where they can relieve them of their hard-earned money. Notwithstanding the fact that we have done everything in our power to protect the people from this nuisance, we have not succeeded so far! Hence this warning to our customers and the public at large to be on the lookout for these tricksters.

STOLEN AUTO IS USED BY ROBBERS IN TWO HOLDUPS

Machine Twice Pursued and Fired Upon by Policemen

MEN ROBBED TOOK NOTICE OF LICENCE

General Alarm Sent Out to All Policemen to Watch for the Stolen Car—Is Found Abandoned.

An automobile owned by James Enright of 2945 Flad avenue, and stolen from in front of his home at 6 p. m. yesterday, was used by the thieves to aid them in at least two highway robberies and was twice pursued and shot at by policemen before it was found abandoned on Spring avenue near Hickory street at 1:30 a. m. today.

Raymond Todd, 24 years old, of 4020 A. Folson avenue, who was found wounded at his home after one of the chases, is a prisoner at the city hospital, pending an investigation of his movements last night.

Enright reported the theft of the machine and its license number, 11,949.

At 10:15 p. m. four men in an automobile drove to the curb at Columbia and Dalton avenues. Three pumped out and waylaid and robbed Eugene A. Donzelot of 2705 Dalton avenue, taking from him $1.25, a ring and a watch. As the machine drove away he noted the license number, which showed it to be Enright's car.

Two Others Held Up.
Edward Krieger and Orville Young, both of 4552 Tower Grove place, were robbed up and down in the same manner at King's highway and Columbia avenue at 11:45 p. m.
The plunder in this case amounted to only $3.90. Krieger and Young also noted the license number as that of the stolen machine.

Policemen in all districts were notified to be on the lookout for the automobile. At midnight Patrolman Whalen saw a machine driving at high speed on Southwest avenue near King's highway and commanded the driver to halt. As the machine sped past him a shot was fired from it and he returned the fire. He then pressed into service a mail collector's truck and chased the machine north to Clayton avenue and east to Taylor avenue, where it got away, after the policeman and the men in it had exchanged several shots.

Whalen reported that he fired one shot into the machine at close range and believed he had wounded one of the men. He said he noted the license number as that of a stolen car.

At 12:40 a. m. Patrolman Wilson saw the machine and noted the license number on Southwest avenue, near Brown avenue, and fired a shot at it, but failed to stop it.

At 1 a. m. policemen were called to Todd's home. He was shot in the chest. He told them he was wounded by one of two negroes who waylaid him on La Salle street, near Tiffany avenue, at 11:20 p. m. When questioned further at the city hospital he denied having been in the stolen automobile.

When the machine was found abandoned about five blocks from Todd's home it was found that a bullet had passed through the body of the car in such a way that it probably would have hit a person sitting in the left-hand rear seat.

Autos Stolen Last Night.
Automobiles stolen last night belonged to Walter C. Hauesler, 2623
Flora boulevard, and Isaac Cohn, 5551 Waterman avenue. The Haues-ler machine was stolen from in front of the Hauesler home.

St. Anthony's Church, Michigan avenue and Meramec street, last night, was added to the list of churches recently visited by burglars. Thieves broke in through the rear door and chopped open the poor boxes. Police were told the thieves obtained little.

Silk hosiery valued at $300 was stolen by burglars from the Princess Hosiery Co. in the Rialto Building, Grand avenue and Olive street, last night.

At the home of Mrs. Daisy Moore, 907 North Eighteenth street, but-tlers obtained jewelry valued at $200.

COURTMARTIAL REFORM SOUGHT

Former Officers Form Body to Work Against "Injustice."

By the Associated Press.

NEW YORK, March 28.—To support reform of courtmartial proceedings, a system of practiced injustice which "has survived outside the United States only in Germany and Russia," a preliminary organization has been effected at a meeting
here of former officers of the Judge Advocate-General's department.

Maj. George C. Beach said that members of the committee "feel that Secretary Baker and Gen. Crowder have placed themselves in an unfortunate and unnecessary position before the country by opposing the reforms advocated by Gen. Ansell, former assistant head of the department." Maj. Beach added that demonstration of Gen. Ansell was unquestionable. "The present system of military justice is a system of practiced injustice," declared a formal statement issued by the committee. Maj.
Charles G. Revell of St. Louis is in the organization committee.

TWO PORTO RICANS COMPLAIN

Delegates From Cigar Union Say
They Were Imprisoned in Cuba.
Correspondence of the Associated Press.
SAN JUAN, Porto Rico, March 13.
—The United States Government is being asked to investigate the detention at Havana and subsequent deportation from Cuba of Ramon Barrios and Alfredo Negrin, delegates from the Porto Rican tobacco workers, who went to Cuba to study working conditions of their trade in that island on behalf of the Porto Rican Tobacco Workers' Union.

Barrios and Negrin, who are American citizens and who were provided with passports from Porto Rico, have arrived here after their deportation. They say they were held in absolute isolation as Bolsheviki at Havana for six days, and that the Cuban authorities refused to permit them to communicate either with legal advisors or with the American Minister.

SOCIALISTS AND BOLSHEVIK MEET

Associated Press.
NEW YORK, March 28.—More than 2000 Socialists and Bolshevik sympathizers assembled here last night to welcome L. A. C. K. Marx, self-announced commercial representative of the Russian Soviet Government in the United States, named the name of Mayor George H. Hanft, who at the mention of American troops in Russia and about the hall with cheers and stamping when speakers predicted the early coming of international socialism.

Albert Rhys Williams, newspaper correspondent, who returned recently from Russia to open a Bolshevik information bureau, devoted much of his address to ridicule of the Senate Committee investigating Bolshevism before whom he appeared as a witness. S. John Block, chairman of the meeting, stirred the audience to frantic cheers by mentioning the name of Eugene V. Debs and said "we are working for a Socialist republic. We socialists will see to it," he declared, "that Woodrow Wilson of Washington and Paris will soon declare a general amnesty."

MAN IN 138TH, LISTED AS MISSING, WAS KILLED

Another Member of Regiment Mentioned in Comrade's Letter as Having Died in Action.

Wayne Hurst of E Company, 138th (St. Louis) Infantry, was killed in action in the Argonne battle, between Sept. 26 and Oct. 2; according to official information which has come to his half-brother, E. M. Thompson of 3222 Greenwood boulevard, Maplewood. He formerly lived at 1333 North Euclid avenue, and was a salesman for the St. Louis Dairy Co. His father, Frank Hurst, lives in Canton, O. Private Hurst was listed in November as missing in action, and a notification of his death was recently sent to his father.

Matthew C. Klasing of C Company, 138th, who was a runner in the Argonne battle, is named in a comrade's letter as having been killed in that battle. His mother, Mrs. Anna A. Klasing of 6138 Bradley avenue, has been trying to obtain information about him for several months, but the only official notification which she has received thus far is that he is missing in action since Oct. 2. Klasing was a member of the First Regiment since 1915, and served on the Mexican border in 1916. He was an employee of the Simmons Hardware Co.

Joseph Ostmeier of 3225 Kosciusko street, is named in today's official casualty list as having died from accident or other cause. No other St. Louis name is in the list.

"GENTLEMEN'S AGREEMENT" DISCUSSED IN HOUSE OF PEERS

Doesn't Exist, Says Shidehara, but Japan Made Voluntary Declaration on Japanese Entering the U. S. Correspondence of the Associated Press.
TOKIO, Feb. 27.—In the House of Peers today a member presented an interpellation regarding the terms and the period of enforcement of the "gentlemen's agreement" concluded in 1907 between Japan and the United States, and asked whether the agreement was intended to be kept in force forever. He said he had heard regulation of immigration was enforced more strictly by the Japanese than by the Americans. He wanted to know why Japanese are being subjected to such regulations while the Mexican and Filipinos are freely admitted to America.

Shidehara, Vice Minister of Foreign Affairs, replied that the so-called "gentlemen's agreement" did not exist. There was a voluntary declaration made by Japan for regulating the influx of Japanese to America. It means that no Japanese may emigrate but that those who are already in America are free to call their families from Japan.

The Imperial Government is bound to live up to its declaration, he said. Many a time anti-Japanese laws are understood to have been brought before American legislatures but owing to, and in appreciation of, Japan's efforts, all anti-Japanese measures have failed to pass. The said declaration will be kept in force for some time yet; it may be abolished when the Japanese immigrants convince the American authorities their presence is no cause of danger to American institutions.

GERMANY UNABLE TO GIVE INFORMATION ABOUT CYCLOPS

No Submarines Near West Indies When Collier Was Last Heard From: 203 Aboard.

By the Associated Press.
BERLIN, Wednesday, March 28.—The German Admiralty says it is unable to give any assistance in solving the mystery of the disappearance early in March of last year of the United States Naval collier, Cyclops, while bound from Brazil for the United States, with a crew of 15 officers and 221 men, 57 passengers and a cargo of manganese. Admiralty officials say they received no report of the sinking of the Cyclops. They add that no German submarines were operating at the time in West Indian waters.

WASHINGTON, March 28.—The last report from the American Naval collier Cyclops was received at the Navy Department, March 4, of last year. At that time the vessel was at a West Indies island and was due at an American port March 13. When the Cyclops left the West Indies one of her engines was damaged, but the department said this fact would not have prevented her from communicating with other vessels or a land station by radio. All efforts to reach the ship by wireless failed. Manganese ore, with which the Cyclops was heavily laden, might under certain conditions give off an extremely dangerous gas. Precautions had been taken against this, however, on all ships engaged in the manganese-carrying trade. The explosion theory was not given credence by the department.

FOREST PARK OPERAS TO OPEN EITHER ON JUNE 1 OR JUNE 15

Question of Date Depends Upon
When the Closing Exercises of the Schools Will Be Held.

At a meeting of the General Committee of the Municipal Theater Association at the City Club yesterday, it was stated that the opera season at Forest Park would open either on June 1 or June 15, the date depending on the plans of the schools for their closing exercises. If opening on June 1, the season will be of eight weeks, but only of six weeks if opening on the later date. A committee to suggest the names of operas to the Productions Committee was named by Mayor Kiel as follows: Col. Isaac Hedges, Mrs. Morris Shrank, Miss Elizabeth Cueny, Prof. E. L. Coburn, Dr. Alex. S. Wolf, F. E. Conroy and Dr. A. E. Bostwick. The Productions Committee was given authority to select a manager for the season who will have charge of the productions and arrange for the players. It was stated during the meeting that it was planned to use as many St. Louis singers and dancers as possible, and to pay them for their services. Prices for the various operas will range from 25 cents to $1, the $1 price being for box seats. There will be 1620 free seats. Max Koenigsberg, chairman of the Finance Committee, reported that pledges totaling $19,000 already had been received, and expressed the belief that $50,000 in pledges could be obtained easily. Arrangements were made for the General Committee to meet every two weeks.

SIDNEY DREWS 'CUT IN' ON THE SPOKEN DRAMA

Film Favorites Diverting in
"Keep Her Smiling," Feminist Preachment.

Falling pat with the presence of the suffrage convention was the appearance of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Drew last night at the Shubert-Jefferson Theater, in "Keep Her Smiling," a feminist preachment which should be of much incitement and solace to the fair sex. The male of the species is pictured—somewhat as in the marriage customs of the crustaceans—as being in a state of piteous subjugation to his mate. Her little foibles, such as outrageous extravagance, are but blessings in disguise, to lead him upward and on. His lofty duty in life is to keep her facial muscles in that propitious flexure which denotes contentment. Drew has the part of Henry Trimble, a browbeaten cashier, the risibles of whose young wife, Polly, must be kept at all costs in agreeable exercise. He has mortgaged the rest of his existence to put her in a renaissance villa at Clythebourne-on-the-Sound, when he learns that he has been made treasurer of the employes' union, together with the present of a share of stock. But, alas, his promotion is only in accordance with that purported Wall street practice under which office boys and janitors are sometimes impressed as dummy directors. His salary remains the same as before.

But Polly, finding her husband a member of the firm and a stockholder, immediately plans in celebration a party on a grand scale. She engages as entertainers "Madame," the famous danseuse; "Slav-Arlofsky," the eminent pianist; and "Maruso," greatest of living tenors. Their combined fees, presented to the devoted Henry at the end of the party, total a little bagatelle of $6000.

Henry's Supernatural Luck. In order to keep Henry out of jail for swindling as well as prove that "woman's extravagance is the whip that drives the thoroughbred a winner under the post," the author is compelled frequently to hasten to his aid with incredible windfalls. Without his knowledge a big deal is closed in the office while the heads of the firm are out and he is alone there; they insist upon giving him a commission, which comes providentially to pay the cost of the party. He blunders into a plan, which comes by a series of errors to be regarded as his own, for consolidating his firm and its leading rival. This means for him a place on the board of directors and a salary of $15,000 a year. The curtain falls with Polly planning for a blue automobile. One can see Henry racing madly as long as he lives to keep up with Polly's greed for things.

The superficial comedy of the piece was greatly relished by a big audience, in which were many admirers of the Drews as movie stars. For four years they have held a unique place in the film world as purveyors of wholesome comedies. So that there was much curiosity to see them on the three-dimensional stage, and especially to hear their voices.

Their artistic taste was shown by their refusal to intrude film technique in a spoken comedy. There was none of the exaggerated play of features and gesture which must be used in the silent drama; in fact, they properly shifted the center of gravity to the dialogue. It is not too much to say that Mrs. Drew's voice was the chief element of her success as Polly. She is a mistress of the childish timbre, the conquering lisp, the subjugating whimper. Drew, a brother of John Drew, has not been blessed with an attractive voice, but his lines were spoken with veteran intelligence. His acting was sure, practiced, effective.

The play, produced by Richard Walton Tully, was adapted by John Hunter Booth, author of "The Masquerader," from a series of stories by Edgar Franklin. Drew enforced its moral by means of a certain speech, in which he gallantly ascribed all his success to his wife.

MRS. F. W. BAUMHOFF, WIFE OF FORMER POSTMASTER, DIES

Just Before Death Came She Wrote a Note to Two of Her Sons Who Are in France.

Mrs. Frederick W. Baumhoff, wife of a former postmaster of St. Louis, died yesterday afternoon at her home, 3501 Victor street, following an illness of a week. Just before she died she penned a note to two of her sons, Fred W. and Herbert, who are overseas in the military service, telling them that she would meet them upon their arrival. A third son, Eugene, also in the military service, is now in this country.

Mrs. Baumhoff was interested in war relief work, and was one of the first women in St. Louis to assume an active part to aid our soldiers in France. When her three sons left to serve their country she remarked: "They are needed. My sacrifice is little compared to theirs." For 11 years she was leader of the Missouri division of the International Sunshine Society, resigning in September, 1913.

MODIFIED "PULLERS" ORDINANCE
The Legislation Committee of the Board of Aldermen at today's meeting will make a favorable report on the so-called "pullers" bill, which forbids sidewalk solicitors to try to lure customers from one store to another. The bill will not forbid solicitors from operating in front of their own stores.

The measure also will be amended so as not to forbid union labor picketing.

MAN AND HIS WIFE OVERCOME IN ROOM WITH GAS WATER HEATER

Partial Asphyxiation Results From Burning Up of Oxygen in Air—Their Condition Serious.

Dr. Henry Fields of 8223 Scanlan avenue, on responding at 10 o'clock last night to a call to go to the home of A. M. Goodwin, 7649 Marquette avenue, found Roy Ogile, 37 years old, and his wife, Sophie, 35, lying unconscious in the kitchen of the house, suffering from gas poisoning. The couple were taken to the city hospital, where it was said their condition was serious.

Goodwin, owner of the home and manager of the Portola Hotel, 1915 Market street, where Ogile and his wife are employed, told the police the couple had gone to the house to stay there for the night at his request, and that shortly after 9 o'clock he received a telephone message from Ogile requesting that he send a doctor to attend his wife, who appeared to be ill. Dr. Fields said the partial asphyxiation of the couple resulted from carbon-monoxide poisoning, resulting from the burning up of the oxygen in the air by a gas water heater he found burning when he arrived at the home.

Back From The War Why It Went

YOUR old friend G. Washington's Coffee is back from the war.
When the U. S. Government wanted coffee for the boys in the trenches, they commandeered G. Washington's.

They did this because it was the best coffee to be had.
It tastes good. It is not a "substitute" and doesn't taste like one. It's the real coffee. It has the regular old ambrosial fit-for-the-gods flavor.

The real, commanding reason why people eat any one particular foodstuff is because they like it.

The palate is a better customer than the brain.

The boys in the trenches wanted G. Washington's Coffee, because it is "lickin' good," and it puts pep into you as all coffee should.

You know what you're getting.

It is absolutely soluble. Every bit of it dissolves, in either cold or hot water. There is no waste,
not an atom. There are no grounds, not a speck.

GOV. ALLEN, HERE, REPEATS CHARGES

Asks Missourians to Wait Until 35th Gets Home to Pass Judgment.

Gov. Henry J. Allen of Kansas, who is in St. Louis to speak tonight to member of the National American Woman Suffrage Association at the Odeon, at the Hotel Statler this morning repeated to a Post-Dispatch reporter his charges made before the Senate Military Affairs Committee,
to the effect that the Thirty-fifth Division was not properly supported by artillery or efficiently equipped for battle in the Argonne Forest fighting, and said that his only desire was for Missourians to reserve judgment in the matter until members of the Thirty-fifth reach home, when his charges will be substantiated.

"I have been criticised, and have had verbal brickbats thrown at me," Gov. Allen said, "merely because I told the truth. But if Missourians will only wait until the boys of the Thirty-fifth come home, they will be given ample opportunity to determine if I have told the truth about conditions in the Argonne fight."

Gov. Allen is on his way home from Chicago, where he spoke at the closing session of the National Pe-roleum Banquet.

Article by Palmer.
It was when Gov. Allen's attention had been called to an article by Frederick Palmer in the current issue of Collier's Weekly, referring to the Argonne fight, that he reiterated his charges of inefficiency.

Palmer's article stated that when the First Division relieved the Thirty-fifth "the dead of the Thirty-fifth were in groups in the Exermon ravine.
When the men of the First saw them they knew how good it was to be veterans, under exacting, competent direction; for veterans do not bunch together under the enemy's fire. This is giving the enemy a target."

"Palmer," Gov. Allen said, commenting on the article, "is a member of Gen. Pershing's staff. Since I came home and my report on conditions was made public, it evidently has been decided to tell the truth about the matter."
"When I began telling the facts,
most of the Missouri papers began screaming that I was 'partisan,' apparently having had national look-jaw so long they had forgotten that a man has the privilege of telling the truth."

To Insist on Inquiry.
Referring to Major-General
Traub's recent speech here, Gov. Allen said that he agreed with everything Traub said relative to the soldierly qualities of the men of the Thirty-fifth. "But I was astounded
when he said that the testimony I gave was largely that of civilians,
when as a matter of fact of the testimony I gave, in only one instance was it that of a civilian, and 56 others who furnished me with my facts were line and staff officers under Gen. Traub."

Allen said he still would insist on a congressional investigation of his charges that there was a shortage of airplanes, of ambulances, clothing,
food and horses and that the wounded of the division were not properly cared for in the Argonne fight. He had in his possession voluminous reports from officers of the Thirty-fifth containing practically all the charges
he made during his recent appearance before the Senate Military Affairs Committee.

"I believe this investigation should be made," he said, "for the purpose of preventing any possible recurrence
of such conditions should we ever again become engaged in war."

Gov. Allen believes that the American woman has proved her right to general suffrage and that she has proven conclusively that she can be both a citizen and a woman in the highest sense of both words. War activities, he believes, have given her a background so full of conclusive argument that no reasonable man
may stand back of it.

U. S. TROOPS IN GERMANY SAID TO HAVE FOILED BOLSHEVIST PLOT

Russian Prisoners, Whom Spartacus Intended to Arm, Put on Trains and Scattered.

LONDON, March 28.—Action by American troops looking after Russian prisoners in Germany is believed to have nipped in the bud an important Bolshevist plot, according to an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Berlin, dated Thursday.

The Spartacus in Spandau, the message states, had planned a big rising for Thursday, intending to arm several thousand Russians from the Ruhleben camp. The Americans, however, rushed the Russians on board trains Wednesday night and scattered them under the Americans throughout Germany.

"NEW BROTHERHOOD IS HERE!"
Statement of Edward Markham, Poet, in Address Here.

Edward Markham, author of the poem "The Man With the Hoe," considered by many as a warning and a prophecy of Bolshevism which has come remarkably near fulfillment, spoke at Yeatman High School last night on "The New Brotherhood," which, he said, is at hand. The new brotherhood will be one of workers,
he said.

Change always has preceded any great change in the social and economic life of the world, he said, and we should not be surprised at it now.
Two great devotions are the privilege of mankind, he said, devotion to the nation, and devotion to all humanity; and the greatest of these is devotion to humanity. Bread, beauty and brotherhood will be the great sustaining elements of the new order of things, the poet said.

March Brings Out Unsightly Spots.
How to Remove Easily.

The woman with tender skin dreads
March because it is likely to cover her face with ugly freckles. No matter how thick her veil, the sun and winds have a strong tendency to make her freckle.

Fortunately for her peace of mind,
Othine—double strength, makes it possible for even those most suscep-

TRIAL FOR MURDER OF NUN
Housekeeper for Priest in Court at Traverse City, Mich.
The trial of Mrs. Stanislaw A. Lyschinski, charged with the murder of Sister Mary John, a Felician nun, who mysteriously disappeared from the convent at Isadore 11 years ago, was opened at Leland today. On contention of the defense that the warrant on which the aged priest's housekeeper was arrested early this month was illegally issued, the defendant was released at Greilickville yesterday and later arrested on a warrant obtained by the prosecutor at Leland.

Five A. E. F. Men Begin Life Terms.
LEAVENWORTH, Kan., March 28.—Twelve soldiers convicted of military offenses while serving in France, were received in the Federal prison here yesterday. Five began serving life sentences for murder and the others began terms of 10 to 20 years. Names were not made public.

TALBERT WANTS AUTO PARKING RULES OBEYED

Would Have Police Enforce Ordinance Applying to Third Street Between Chestnut and Locust.

Director of Streets and Sewers Talbert said today he will ask the Police Department to enforce the parking ordinance applying to Third street between Chestnut and Locust streets, and suggest to the Board of Aldermen that the ordinance applying to the congested district be amended so as to cut down the parking time one-half.

Talbert said that on Third street between Pine and Chestnut streets one day last week 23 automobiles were parked over eight hours and two stayed more than 10 hours. He said practically all of the available parking space in the congested district is being used at some time during the day, and that on an average throughout the whole day 52 1/2 per cent of the space is used.

In the congested district between Fourth and Twelfth streets, it had been found that the average number of cars parked at one time on streets running east and west is $69, and the average number on north and south streets is $64, a total of 1733. In 1917, he said, the average total was 1403, in 1918 it was 1282, and in 1919 it was $41.

Talbert says there is adequate parking space in the congested district. On Twelfth street there is space for 300 automobiles between Market and Washington, and the largest number counted at any time was 90. The greatest number counted at any time in the Eleventh street parking space was 35, whereas there is room for 100 machines.

The amendments Talbert proposes would reduce parking time limits on north and south streets downtown from two hours to one hour, and on east and west streets from one hour to 30 minutes.

CLAIMS FOR WAR DAMAGES

List Prepared as Basis for Demands Upon Germany.

PARIS, March 28.—The Post-Dispatch correspondent is able to present herewith the tabulated survey of war damages, the figures comprising loss on plants and services enforced under acts of deportation and otherwise:

France, $15,000,000,000; Belgium, $7,500,000,000; Great Britain, $5,000,000,000; Russia, including Poland, $7,500,000,000; Italy, $1,500,000,000; Serbia, $1,000,000,000; Rumania, $1,000,000,000; America, $750,000,000; Greece, $500,000,000; Czechoslovakia, $400,000,000; Japan, $250,000,000; Portugal, $100,000,000; China, $50,000,000; Armenia and others, about $250,000,000. This list will be subject to final verification, but it will furnish the basis for claims that will be presented to Germany. Distribution of damages in reparation will not necessarily be made on the basis of the claims, for Belgium will certainly be adjudged as entitled to recover for a larger share than any other.

CITY TO CONTEST BRIDGE TAX

Will Resist Effort of East St. Louis to Collect $17.237.

The city of St. Louis has determined to contest the collection by the city of East St. Louis of a tax assessment of $17,237 against the Free Bridge, bill for which was rendered yesterday.

The basis of the contest will be that the bridge is a free utility used by both cities, and should be exempt from taxation. However, he has called attention to the fact that the city of East St. Louis will be better fortified to contest the exemption if the city operates, as it now intends, a street car line across the bridge with a 5-cent fare. He has pointed out that the city of East St. Louis then can say that the bridge is being used to produce revenue, even though the city of St. Louis contemplates no profit from the car line.

ALLEGED ROYALIST CONSPIRACY

21 Persons in Russia Said to Have Been Shot by Bolsheviks.

By the Associated Press. STOCKHOLM, March 28.—An alleged royalist conspiracy has been discovered at Penza, northwest of Saratov, in Eastern European Russia, according to the Russian newspaper Krasnaya Gazeta, and 21 persons have been shot by the Bolsheviks in connection with the plot. The alleged leader was Sukotnik, a former marshal of the Russian nobility, who was a local commissary under the Bolshevik regime. Sukotnik was executed.

The conspirators, according to the newspaper, planned to palm off as a nephew of the Bishop of Ufa as the Grand Duke Dimitri Pavlovitch, carry him to Moscow and make a dramatic appeal to the people from the Kremlin.

Salvador Supports League.

By the Associated Press. SAN SALVADOR, Republic of Salvador, March 28.—The Government has given out the following message: "Salvador accepts in principle the league of nations and is deeply anxious that it establish ample arbitration for weak nations and also that it guarantee the integrity and autonomy of the states of Central America, whose vital interests are traditionally identified with those of Salvador."

The Glenn Martin machine is being built at Cleveland, O. It will have only 1700 miles of "liberty" and will not be much bigger than the Sunbeam machine, but its chances should be estimated on a very different basis. It is of a known type of highest efficiency, and it will have tremendous speed.

With a favoring wind it could do the 1700 miles in 10 hours or perhaps even less. Additional interest is given to Mr. Martin's announcement, since it means that our army as well as our navy will be in the transatlantic competition. Undoubtedly the Glenn Martin flight will be under army direction.

ROBBER DISCOVERED IN OFFICE VAULT ESCAPES

Threatens Ganahl Lumber Co. Watchman With Revolver While Manager Is After Police.

A yeoman was trapped in the vault in the offices of the Ganahl Lumber Co. Newstead and Duncan avenues, last night, but escaped because the men who caught him there failed to lock the vault door while waiting for the police to arrive. The only thing missing after his flight was $5 worth of stamps. A chisel, adz, pick and monkey wrench, which had been placed in the vault to be used to break out by any employee who might accidentally become imprisoned, were used by the visitor in an effort to crack one of the small bars inside the vault, but he was disturbed by Richard Coleman, the watchman, of 238 South Newstead avenue, before he completed the job. Coleman, at 10:30 p. m., had found two desks in the office rifled. He tried the door of the vault and found it unlocked, but when he pulled on it, somebody tugged back from the inside. Coleman then telephoned Nicholas Le Brun, the manager, of 3800 Lafayette avenue, to come and help him. Le Brun arrived, and they pulled manfully at the door, but the man inside pulled just as hard. They were unable to get any better than a draw in the tug-of-war, and decided to call the police. Coleman watched while Brun went to the Newstead Avenue Police Station. When Le Brun returned Coleman was sitting in a chair, blinking at the open vault door. He explained that when Le Brun departed a man slipped out of the vault with a revolver in his hand, and informed Coleman that he would shoot him if he moved. Coleman sat still while the man crawled through a window and departed. The intruder had got the vault combination from a desk which he rifled.

NAVY MAY SEND 3 PLANES ON FLIGHT ACROSS ATLANTIC

flant across the Atlantic will be made soon—I should say, possibly, within 90 days. There may be failures, first, and some ambitions for a place in history may vanish tragically in an ocean waste, but that will not deter others from going on, because as any experienced flyer can tell you, to fly across the Atlantic is a cinch—if nothing goes wrong, among the six machines built or building which we know of—and there may be as many more that are being prepared in secret—two, at least, under normally favorable conditions, ought to be able to fly across the Atlantic and back again, without landing. That feat may furnish the conditions for a contest in a year not far away.

Feat Will Be Soon.
Someone is going to fly from America to Europe or Europe to America before midsummer. There's nothing to prevent it. Besides, the bait of an aggregate of about $110,000 in prizes is an inspiration.

The men who are hastening their competitive plans, each with the hope of being the first to accomplish an epochal feat, are just about tied in their efforts. You see, they all got started at about the same time. The only thing missing after the armistice, if I would undertake a transatlantic flight.

Despite some very specific detail to the contrary, which I have seen in the newspapers, I do not believe that any flying machine of that sort needed to cross the ocean has yet had a trial trip. There has hardly been time since the cessation of hostilities to get to that stage of the proceedings. This doesn't mean there is the least doubt of the feasibility of the transatlantic flight. It signifies only that planes large enough to cross the Atlantic had no important place in warfare, and that machines capable of the accomplishment cannot be constructed, assembled and tuned up in anything like jig time. The plane, which is being built according to the plans of our navy flying experts at the Philadelphia navy yard, is simply the best model in the navy multiplied by two in all dimensions. The navy people believe that their seaplane with a wing spread of 125 feet had a good chance to fly across the Atlantic. So, to accomplish the feat surely and certainly, they started building a seaplane just twice as big. No machine with such a wing spread has even been built, unless it is the British super Handley-Page, and, about that liner, I think there has been a good deal of "spoofing."

For instance, early in March I read a cable dispatch which stated that the machine was all ready for its trial flight, and though it weighed 30 tons, it would have an excess lifting power of 30 tons more. It was expected to fly 80 miles an hour and to cross from England to America in two days. The "lift" of the plane which I am to pilot is about eight tons.

That plane has five Liberty motors and the super-Handley-Page has the same number. To credit the British machine with a "life" of 30 tons is absurd.

Confusion of Projects.
These figures undoubtedly got into print through the confusion of two projects. The British have a dirigible—a balloon with motors for propulsion—which has already been given trials to determine its probable success in a transatlantic flight. It is, of course, a lighter than air machine. Should it cross the Atlantic, the real flight contest, between heavier than air machines which actually fly and do not float, would still be open and undecided. It is that contest upon which the interest of flyers, the world over, is centered.

When an aeroplane shall have flown across the ocean, then we will know that an epochal achievement has been made in demonstrating the practicability of regular transoceanic flights. Should a dirigible successfully make the trip it might only demonstrate that it had been strangely favored by fortune and was lucky enough to have been blown across.

I am unable to state just what lift our navy aspirant is expected to have, but it will be the biggest plane in the world, modeled exactly upon the design of one which has shown the highest weight-carrying efficiency and, therefore, it should have a bigger lift than any competitor. At any rate, we may feel quite sure it will be able to carry the necessary crew and supplies and, if it's as good a boat as the smaller one of the same model, the navy may take the transatlantic flight prize with ease.

As to the chances of the English, I do not feel so much confidence. The Handley-Page is a good plane for carrying weight and sustaining long flights, but it is heavy in proportion to its lifting power, and has not the same degree of efficiency as the Glenn Martin machine, developed in this country since the beginning of the war. Of all the weight-carrying machines I have best.

The Advantage of Naming

Two Executors in Your Will

A joint executorship, consisting of your wife or someone who has an intimate and personal knowledge of your financial affairs and the Mercantile Trust Company as co-executor, makes an ideal arrangement. In such cases a tactful relative or friend can be of great help in settling your estate, yet not be burdened with too much responsibility.

In heavier duties, such as meeting legal requirements, assuming custody of property, safety of securities, investments, etc., would devolve upon us. An individual in these capacities may prove competent, but there are numerous instances of individual failure from causes beyond his control.

Many careful and thoughtful persons have appointed the Mercantile Trust Company as executor and trustee because it is perpetual, it is organized and equipped for every phase of this particular work and is free from accidents of individual life.

SERIOUS SITUATION IN ANTI-CONSCRIPT MOVE

British Miners Threaten to Compel Withdrawal of Military Service Bill.

By EDWARD PRICE BELL, A Special Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.

LONDON, March 28.—Further and startling evidence of the independent mood of the British working people appears in a resolution adopted by the miners warning the Government that unless it withdraws the military service bill now before Parliament the Miners' Union will take steps to "compel" it to do so.

What this bill seeks to provide is an adequate army for Britain's estimated needs pending the organization of a voluntary army for the empire's permanent needs. It means, if passed, that conscription will be continued for a certain class of men for a year longer than was contemplated when these men joined the colors to fight the Germans. Working class opinion condemns the measure as intended to "fasten compulsory military service on the people," and the result is a pointblank challenge to the Government and Parliament.

Nothing quite like this has manifested itself before in Britain's history. It is the position that must arise, if the miners are as good as their word that nearly all the newspapers thus far pass over the resolution as lightly as possible. Most of them do not touch on the incident at all in their leading articles and refrain from emphasizing it in their news columns. The matter furnishes a subject for thought beyond as well as within the boundaries of Britain since it illustrates afresh the distinction of powerful elements in modern democracy to accept meekly the proposals of their nominal government in which they themselves do not believe.

So far as one can judge, there is strong argument in favor of the Government's bill. It is hard to see how an adequate interim army can be obtained without the continuance of conscription for a time since Winston Spencer Churchill, the Secretary for War, declares that voluntarism has been tried and found to be a failure. Nevertheless, the miners and quite probably the vast majority of other workers assert that the demands of the military authorities are excessive, that the Germans are finally beaten and that "militarism" must be abolished in the islands.

Many workers fear, so far as I can learn, without justification, that the Government is planning a serious military movement against the Russian Bolsheviks and against any such movement not only they but their wives have set their faces implacably. They demand that what few British soldiers already are in Russia shall be withdrawn and that the Government shall use its influence with the allies to induce them to act likewise.

ART MUSEUM SOON TO RECEIVE RARE COLLECTION OF ANTIQUES

$18,000 Tapestry, $12,500 Carved Chest and $10,500 Chinese Vase Are Among the Objects.

A rare collection of antiques will be added to the City Art Museum shortly. Comptroller Nolte having today approved bills submitted by the management to cover the cost.

"The Floral Fete," an $18,000 tapestry of the Louis XII period; a carved walnut Italian marriage chest from the Renaissance, costing $12,500, and an old Chinese porcelain vase, worth $10,500, of the Kang-Hsi (1662-1722) period, are the most notable objects in the collection. "The Floral Fete" is a Burgundian work of the late fifteenth century, depicting in rich tapestry an outdoor scene of a royal court. It measures more than 11 by 10 feet.

The marriage chest, or "cassone," is heightened in appearance by a gilding representing allegorically war and peace, and was formerly the property of Lord Hardwicke, Brabham Hall, Cambridge, England.

Sang-de-Boeuf style was followed in the making of the Chinese vase, which was formerly in the collection of Rufus E. Moore. It is bottle-shaped and slightly flaring at the lip, which has been chipped and ground to give it an even appearance.

The glaze is a running Sang-de-Boeuf, showing the so-called blood clots. There is a spot on one side a trifle lighter than the rest of the vase in color, which experts say is an added attraction. A carved teakwood stand accompanies it.

An etching by Charles Meryon, worth $1,150; a sixteenth century North Italian halberd, worth $1250; a small 1600 Flemish battle ax, an old Flemish arbutule, worth $750; a carved wood Italian spear, seven feet long, and valued at $900; a five-foot Spanish battle ax, valued at $700, and a decorated red lacquer table, costing $500, are other noteworthy objects among those the museum acquired.

The collection cost $52,430. It is expected to be placed on exhibition in the museum in Forest Park, to remain permanently, as soon as it is received.

DE VALERA VISITS LORD MAYOR

"President of Ireland" Promises to Make Statement Later.

DUBLIN, March 28.—Edward de Valera, the Sinn Fein "president of Ireland," visited the Mansion House yesterday afternoon and was received by the Lord Mayor and some members of his entourage.

Prof. de Valera in an interview said that owing to the attitude of the censors it would be useless to make a statement at present, but that he would take the opportunity later to express his views. Meanwhile he added that he had other work on hand.

REED MEN SEEM TO HAVE BLOCKED DENUNCIATION PLAN

Democratic Leaders Likely to Agree Today to Call Convention After Covenant Is Finally Approved.

SCHEME IS MERELY TO INDORSE LEAGUE

Farris, However, Will Offer Resolution Assailing Senator—Chiefs Hope to Out-general Republicans.

By a Staff Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.

JEFFERSON CITY, March 28.—Democratic leaders here today for the purpose of heading off the movement for the calling of a State convention to adopt resolutions repudiating United States Senator James A. Reed, virtually have agreed that a convention shall be called, but that it shall not be held until after the covenant of the league of nations shall have been finally adopted. They believe that by that time the tentative covenant will have been so amended that they can make a showing that Reed was right in at least some of his criticism, and that through this showing they can prevent any adverse mention of Reed in their report.

As it now stands, the movement, which was started by National Committee Chairman Giltra, Representative Farris and about 50 members of the House as a distinctly anti-Reed affair, has become a Democratic party movement for political advantage on the Republicans instead of an inter-party quarrel of the Democrats.

Reed Men Seem to Have Won.

Seemingly, Reed's supporters have outgeneralized Farris and his followers, though Farris declared this morning that he would insist upon a party declaration disapproving Reed's attitude toward President Wilson.

The proposed convention will be for the purpose of adopting a strong endorsement of the completed league of nations covenant before the Republicans can take action.

Chairman Neale refused today, as he did yesterday, to discuss the petition from 50 Democratic members of the House urging the calling of a convention, or the probable action of the executive committee of the State Committee, which meets later in the day in the office of State Treasurer Middlekamp, but he intimated strongly that the party in the State would take official action a little later.

"There may be some sort of endorsement of the league of nations by the executive committee," said Neale in response to questions.

Neale and Fleming conferred late yesterday afternoon with Representative Farris who has been the active leader of the House Democrats in their opposition to Reed. Though all declined to discuss the conference, it is known that Neale and Fleming attempted to induce Farris to withdraw his demand and that of the others who signed the petition that an immediate convention be held.

VETERAN RAILWAY MAIL CLERK DIES AFTER LONG ILLNESS

Henry W. Wray Was on Train Held Up at Glendale in January, 1910.

Henry W. Wray, oldest railway mail clerk in point of service on the Missouri Pacific, St. Louis-Kansas City division, died at his home, 3616 Bartmer avenue, at 7 o'clock this morning after a long illness. He was 57, unmarried and made his home with his brother, Richard M. Wray, and two sisters. He was born in Cottleville, St. Charles County, Mo., and came to this city in his infancy.

Wray was on the mail train held up at Glendale, Jan. 21, 1910, when he was marched nearly a mile by the robbers in his underclothing, though the weather was bitterly cold. When the train was stopped near Glendale, he was changing his clothes. His health began to fail shortly after.

The robbery was committed by four masked men who were after a shipment of $40,000 in gold, which was supposed to be in the express car. The mail car was rifled and the contents of some 25 registered pouches carried off.

FOUR HURT IN COLLISION OF INTERURBAN CARS AT MADISON

Alton-St. Louis Limited Crashes Into Local, Projecting Into Its Way at Junction Point.

Four persons were injured, none seriously, at 12:30 p. m. yesterday, when an Alton-St. Louis limited interurban car crashed into an Alton-St. Louis local at Second street and McCambridge avenue, Madison, Ill., according to a statement given out by the company today. The limited sheared off the front platform of the local, which was projecting at a junction point at right angles over the tracks on which the limited had the right of way.

Mrs. Dennis Lee, 23 years old, 1914 B street, Granite City, was severely bruised and was cut by glass. Others cut by glass were Charles E. Blair, with an office at 415 Jaccard Building, St. Louis; O. Torosian, Granite City; Dan Rookewena, 48 Woodriver. The injured were passengers on the local.

LOUIS P. ALOE

REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE

PRESIDENT BOARD OF ALDERMEN

ALOE'S RECORD

1. Member of the BOARD OF FREEHOLDERS that wrote the present city charter, 1912 to 1914.

2. Author of the provision in the Charter establishing the payment of prevailing rate of wages for mechanics and laborers for employees of the city.

3. Author of bill creating FARMERS' CURB MARKETS, where produce raisers bring products directly to consumers, thus reducing the high cost of living. In 1918, there were 578,000 consumers who purchased produce from 7645 vehicles at seven curb markets in our city.

4. Succeeded in passing legislation obtaining 6-MILE LEVEE RAILROAD FOR CITY free of charge when Terminal Association franchise expired. Same is now municipally owned and producing a revenue of $30,000.00 annually.

5. Ended the vacillating policy which for more than 10 years had made the Ranken Tract railroad yards a cow pasture, and resulted in the Terminal Association laying 31 tracks with a mileage that affords car space for 220 cars in the heart of the congested terminal district, affording relief to shippers that would have been otherwise forced to operate from East St. Louis.

6. As a member of the CITY PLAN COMMISSION, ALOE helped shape the Zoning Ordinance, which protects the little home owners who have invested their life's savings in homes for their families from the encroachment of factories that would destroy residence property values. The Ordinance likewise establishes industrial and commercial districts, thereby stabilizing values in districts set aside for such development. Aloe assumed the responsibility of getting this vitally important measure enacted in the face of much opposition and misunderstanding.

7. As ACTING MAYOR in April, 1917, when America entered the war, ALOE appointed the 28 ward draft boards to conduct the draft, which made an excellent record for our city, and were entirely free of all scandal or criticism.

8. As ACTING MAYOR received the distinguished French soldier-statesman, Marshal Joffre, and Premier Viviano on behalf of the city. His impressive welcome to these distinguished visitors reflected great credit on the city and was highly gratifying to all loyal citizens.

9. As CHAIRMAN OF THE PERSHING DAY WAR SAVINGS DRIVE, Aloe sold $1,000,000 of war savings stamps. His record in connection with all war activities was in keeping with this remarkable accomplishment. From the day that America entered the war, Aloe practically put aside his private business affairs and devoted himself to the aid of our country in the support of every Government loan and in the contribution of every war philanthropy.

10. President Wilson honored Aloe by appointing him A MEMBER OF THE DISTRICT DRAFT APPEALS BOARD, succeeding Senator Spencer.

11. As ACTING MAYOR at the time of the East St. Louis race riots, he protected the city from a threatened influx of smallpox, which was prevalent among the refugees who were forced to flee to the gates of our city. The refugees were housed and fed at the Municipal Lodging House, in a humane way and to their entire satisfaction, until they were cared for by their own people, and by instituting quarantine regulations and vaccination the danger of an epidemic here was averted.

12. In WAR RECONSTRUCTION WORK Aloe as a member of the City Plan Commission, with his usual war spirit, advocates a specific Public Work program to give work to unemployed soldiers and civilians and for the upbuilding of the city. This program has the approval of the Chamber of Commerce.

13. ALOE is a successful and experienced business man, at the head of one of the largest industries in his line of trade in the United States. He is capable, safe and sane.

FRISCO TRAIN FROM ST. LOUIS IS HELD UP

Two Robbers in Arkansas Get Express Package of $6000 and Escape.

By the Associated Press.
MARION, Ark., March 28.—Two masked robbers last night held up St. Louis & San Francisco passenger train, No. 801, about two miles west of Bridge Junction, and escaped with two packages containing about $6000 in currency, taken from the express car. When the engineer warned the robbers he was due to pass St. Louis & San Francisco train, No. 106 at the junction, according to his story, they told him they had sent a man ahead to flag that train to prevent a wreck.

The bandits, the engine crew asserted, climbed over the tender and forced the engineer to give up his throttle. They uncoupled the train behind the mail and express cars and ran them ahead about half a mile. Again stopping the engine they confronted the express messenger, demanding that he surrender the money. He told them there was none in the car, he says, but they informed him they knew he had taken on packages of currency at Blytheville and Wilson, and forced him to give them up. The robbers then left the train, and the crew brought it back to Marion.

No trace of the bandits had been found at a late hour, according to reports received here.

The Memphis Accommodation, which is train No. 801, left St. Louis yesterday morning at 8 o'clock, in charge of Conductor J. B. French of 2443 Eads avenue. French was on the train at the time of the hold-up, but the engine crew had been changed at Chaffee, Mo.

FARM HANDS OFFERED $25 TO $40 MONTH; COUPLES UP TO $60

Room and Board for Single Men, and Some Separate Houses for Those With Wives.

With the advent of spring farmers are asking the United States Employment Service office at 705 Market street, for farm hands, and are offering from $25 to $45 a month for single men and $40 to $60 for man and wife. In addition to the wages, board and room would be furnished to the single men, and, in some cases, a separate house for the man and wife. The applications are from farmers of Missouri, Illinois and Iowa.

"We have now at least 25 such jobs for single and married men who would like to go on farms," said C. A. Reed, acting examiner in charge of the employment office. Reed said that conservative estimates show from 20,000 to 25,000 men out of employment in St. Louis, and declared that what the employment service needed most were more orders for men from St. Louis industries, as the demands from outside the city were fairly good. The employment service office has all kinds of skilled and unskilled labor on its waiting lists, he said, and suitable men for any industry could be instantly supplied.

GOODLETT FUNERAL TOMORROW

School Principal Descendant of Relatives of Washington.

Funeral services for William C. Goodlett, 58 years old, principal of Hempstead School, who died suddenly of heart disease yesterday morning at his home in Webster Groves, will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Presbyterian Church in Webster Groves.

Goodlett, who was a descendant of close relatives of George Washington, was a graduate of Central High School and Washington University, and also attended the University of Virginia for a time. He was superintendent of the St. Charles (Mo.) public schools and later was principal of Carondelet, Lafayette and Lincoln Schools. He was a Mason and an active member of the Presbyterian Church.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Margaret R. Goodlett; two sons, William C. Jr., 14, and Edward Ross, 13; a daughter, Martha Washington, 9, and a brother, Gilbert C. Goodlett.

CHICAGO JESUIT SPEAKS HERE

No Wonder Soldiers Without Jobs Think of Forming Soviets, He Says.

The Rev. Frederic Seidenburg, S. J., dean of the School of Social Science of Loyola University, Chicago, talked last night in the auditorium of the St. Louis University Law School on unemployment and other social and industrial problems. "Card indexing will not suffice," he said of the question of jobs for returning soldiers. "Work must be provided for these men, or it is no wonder if they think of organizing soviets." He said the victories gained by British labor in the war period had had their effect on the industrial situation in all countries.

COL. A. M. JACKSON DIES

Was Head of Western Military Academy for 18 Years.

Col. Albert M. Jackson, president of the Western Military Academy at Alton, Ill., died last night at 11:30 o'clock from heart trouble, with which he was stricken an hour before. He had been connected with the academy 15 years, going to Alton soon after his graduation from Princeton and taking a position as instructor in the school, which was then Wyman Institute. For 18 years he has been head of the academy. Col. Jackson is survived by his wife; a son, Maj. Ralph Jackson, who is an instructor at the school, and two daughters, Mrs. Rex Latham and Miss Grace Jackson.

Rickey Remaking Old Model Players Along New Lines

Squad Being Drilled to Eradicate Weaknesses Overlooked in the Past.

HURLERS BEING REVAMPED

Faults of Delivery Corrected in Long Workout by Coaches Sugden and Rickey.

By John E. Bray

If you have any bad habits, such as gargling your soup out of tune or bunched the left shoulder just before you intend to pitch to the batter, visit Surgeon Branch Rickey at Francis Field, and have the offending fault amputated. It's Rickey's business, at this time, and he's proving himself an expert. Three weeks in the Rickey institute and the subject will emerge equal to any emergency, even to balancing 16 peas on a knifeblade.

The Cardinal manager's methods probably astonished some of the players on the squad yesterday more than anything they have seen since they left the provinces. For there is only one Rickey in the major leagues, when it comes to handling men. Rickey yesterday spent five hours picking flaws in his newer pitchers and in the base stealing of all of his men. After dissecting their troubles, Rickey did everything to point out their faults, from drawing diagrams on the diamond to illustrating a slide himself, and he did both well.

Building a Winner No Surety. Francis Field with Rickey in action resembles the directing studio of a motion picture concern more than anything else. Half a dozen rehearsals are going on simultaneously, with Rickey trying to direct them all. To fill the job seemingly he has to own 16 eyes, eight hands, four heads and a huckster's voice. He gets away with it—voice, too.

To the observer and there were several interested onlookers, yesterday, Rickey appears to have under control a large number of men, and he is trying to be the architect of his own fortunes. Most managers are content to take players as they find them or let them go, and they have no knowledge by observation. Rickey is trying to short-cut this system by finding out the faults of the men, correcting them and making them useful now.

Rickey believes that ball players are born, not made, but he thinks some of them can be remade. His principal concern is over the pitching staff, which is deficient at this time. In number of proven men who do not have to be advised and coached and who can be relied upon to win a definite number of games.

Jake May a "Prospect." Among the men Rickey spent time upon yesterday Jake May, the youthful pitcher, was most prominent. May is receiving the managerial once-over, a scrutiny that is extending to the minutest detail of his pitching form. Rickey thinks this boy has all the stuff needed for a successful hurler. If he can correct a minor fault of form and protect his delivery from the watchful eye of the base stealer, Jake may be heard from later on.

Reinhardt, the Iowa University youngster, is another pitcher who has caught the Rickey eye, which is just open wide to lamp anything that resembles him.

Making Diamonds From Rhinestones. Rickey's club is far from satisfactory-looking at this time, in its personnel. Despite all the hard work, it is questionable if the lack of starting material can be overcome by a mere polishing process. The buffer never yet made a rhinestone into a diamond. Nevertheless, Rickey believes that the development of team work and the talents of each individual to the highest point are the most important in a measure, the unfortunate shortage of winning hurlers.

One Deal Still Possible. Rickey asked yesterday that he still had hopes of completing a deal, but that it did not concern a pitcher, he added that he had practically made up his mind that he would have to go through the season with the material now on hand.

Two Hurlers Worry Rickey. The club is still suffering from the absence of several of its important cogs and from the refusal of Jack Smith to sign. Milton Stock, however, is expected in a few days, which Snyder, Gonzales, Miller and Dillinger will no doubt all be here before the season opens. Gonzales and Smith are the only players "holding out" on Rickey and doubtless they will be in line shortly, although the team's leader is blue about their actions, though determined not to yield to pressure.

Kansas City Squad Named. The absence of these important players will leave Rickey and a weakened squad to take to Kansas City for the first practice games of the season tomorrow and Sunday. Rickey will use Turo, Goodwin, Reinhardt and probably Horstman, Demons and one other catcher will be taken. Paullette, Fisher, Schmitt, Hornsby and Doyle will take care of the infield, while Shotton, Cruise and Henry will be among the outfielders used.

Two more practice sessions will be held today.

He Pitched Four No-Hit Games; Says "It's of No Consequence"

Youthful Hurler Now With Cardinals, Will Probably Be Used Tomorrow at Kansas City.

Another college pitcher, Arthur Reinhardt, who was a member of the Iowa University nine last season, may become a fixture with the Cardinals this year. Reinhardt is a southpaw, 21 years of age, and weighing 175 pounds. Branch Rickey has been greatly impressed with Reinhardt's work and says that he probably will pitch in one of the games in Kansas City, either tomorrow or Sunday.

After the close of school last summer, Reinhardt enlisted in the army, and was stationed at Jefferson Barracks. While there he pitched several games for the Dittmans in the Municipal League and also for the army nine.

When the club asked for information about himself, Reinhardt wrote back that "he had pitched four no-hit games for semi-professional teams in Northern Iowa in 1917, but that he considered this of no consequence."

Reinhardt was picked up by Charlie Barrett, Barrett, while with Detroit in 1917, recommended Reinhardt to President Navin, but owing to the unsettled conditions the Tigers did not care to take a chance. This spring, however, Barrett signed him for the Cardinals.

Reinhardt is one of the most willing workers at Francis Field, and although there are many things he does not know about the national pastime, he is willing to learn.

ARTHUR REINHARDT.

If Reinhardt should make good it will give Rickey a southpaw to help out Jake May and Bill Sherdel, both of whom are youngsters.

Lindsey in Lead in A. B. C. Event

New Haven Star Scores 1933 for His Nine Games in National Tenpin Tourney.

TOLEDO, O., March 28.—Shake-ups were frequent in the different events of the American Bowling Congress competition here yesterday. In the five-man event Gregg All-Stars of Cleveland made a strong bid for first place, with a total of 2883, nine pins below the present high mark. The Clevelanders had games of 850, 1062 and 871.

The feature bowling yesterday was done by Mort Lindsey, the New Haven star, and one of the best competitors in the country. Lindsey took the lead in the all-events with 1933. He had 529 in the doubles and 850, which tied him for third place. In the individuals.

New first and second place teams also came in the doubles. O. Kalluich and E. Barnes of Rochester rolled into first place with a 1363 total, the latter getting 706 for his hit, while A. Trapp and L. Hahn of Chicago went to second with 1275.

Burke to Change His Lineup Unless Batting Improves

Manager of Browns Is Not Satisfied With Way Players Have Been Hitting.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., March 28.—Despite the fact that the Browns made 11 hits in winning from the Remount team here yesterday, 5-1, Manager Jimmy Burke made the announcement this morning that unless the players showed a marked improvement in hitting in the battle with San Antonio tomorrow he would change the lineup. After the game yesterday Burke stated that he was satisfied with everything but hit being counted.

Of the 11 safeties made off Pitcher McQueen of the Army nine, Herman Bronkie, who showed at third base, grabbed three. All of the bingles were singles, not one extra base hit being counted.

The victory yesterday was the third for the Browns in exhibition contests this season. The Remount team showed no slugs and made only four hits off Ernie Koob, Bert Gallia and Joe Bennett.

Army Men Score on Gallia. The two bingles made off Koob, one in the first and one in the third, were both infield scorches. After Gallia had retired the soldiers in order in the fourth and fifth, solid runs by Speltzer and Reebies and a sacrifice fly by Ables produced a run. Only one batter reached first against Bennett, on an error by Robertson. Bennett fanned three and not a ball was hit out of the infield while he was on duty. Koob was the only pitcher to pass a batter, he lasting two walks.

McQueen, who hurried for the soldiers yesterday, is trying out with the local Texas League club, and was in the game against Burke's men last Sunday.

His by Siler, Williams and Bronkie in the fourth, coupled with a steal and Robertson's sacrifice fly, resulted in a run for the Browns. The seventh Billings singled, Bennett sacrificed, Gedeon singled and Billings scored.

Two Errors for Robertson. "Gene" Robertson made a pair of errors, but the breaks were not entirely the youngster's fault. The ground ball in is a rather soggy condition as the result of the recent rain and fielding is not an easy task on the local diamond, not even for an older and more experienced player than Robertson.

Bennett made the other error of the game in the ninth inning on an overthrow to first trying to catch Reebie off the base.

SUNSET HILL CLUB TO OPEN COURSE APRIL 1. The board of directors of the Sunset Hill Country Club has announced that the links will be open for play starting April 1. Many traps and hazards have been constructed during the winter, which improve the course materially. It also was found necessary to construct 130 additional lockers.

The Greens Committee reserves the right to close the links on days when in their judgment, ground conditions make it advisable.

LOCAL BOWLERS DEPART TODAY FOR A. B. C. MEET. Bowlers of two St. Louis quintets, the Martin Falkners, winners in the recent city scratch tournament, and the Sunshine Specials, are scheduled to depart tonight for Toledo, where tomorrow night they will compete in the first event of the American Bowling Congress tourney.

Conselman High in Studies. When Jim Conselman entered Washington University three months late it was feared that he would be unable to make up his lost ground in the difficult freshman work of the dental course. Consequently there were those who doubted his eligibility for next semester.

Conselman surprised the doubters and when trimester grades were posted this week was one of the ranking men of his class. Joe Hauden also scored heavily, ranking higher than any other freshman out for athletics.

The tennis courts are being put into shape now, and it is expected that the annual school tournament will be started early next month.

GIRLS' FIVES TO PLAY SECOND GAME TONIGHT. The second meeting between the Ashland Champs and the Lafayette Park Girls in their three-game series for the local women's Municipal basketball championship will be held tonight at the Mullapathy Gymnasium.

ST. LOUIS BOXER WINS BANTAM TITLE OF 35TH DIVISION 'OVER THERE'

Barney Forbes, who boxed before the West End Club and the Crescent A. C. some years ago, has won the bantamweight championship of the Thirty-fifth Division of the 135th Infantry over there, according to a letter received by his brother, Leo M. Rosenberg, 1208 North Euclid avenue.

The boxers of the Thirty-fifth are fostered by Bud Clancy, another St. Louisan. Forbes was a lion runner.

Forbes won the title by knocking out Waddell of the 140th Infantry in three rounds. Prior to this he stopped Dawson of the 130th Field Artillery in one session.

For winning he received a silver medal, presented by Brigadier-General Dugan, commandant of the division, which is 3 1/2 inch thick, 2 1/2 inches long and 2 inches wide.

The record books show that on Feb. 14, 1918, Forbes beat in a 4-round bout in Frisco, Tex. Camp, one of the country's best bantams. He also met several other boxers of the 35th division and started boxing when 14.

JOHNSTON, 1915 SINGLES TENNIS CHAMPION, IS DISCHARGED FROM NAVY. NEW YORK, March 28.—Lieut. William M. Johnston, the San Francisco youth who lowered the colors of the mighty Maurice F. McLaughlin in 1915 and won the national lawn tennis championship title, arrived in New York yesterday. An effort was made to induce the famous star of the courts to compete in the National Indoor Championship of the Seventh Regiment Armory. Lieut. Johnston, however, has just received his discharge to go back to California.

The young California player arrived with the United States fleet from the Philippines, where he was on duty to play at the Vedado Tennis Club, defeating some of the best players in Havana.

As Johnston described it, "I played just well enough to make me think that I haven't forgotten how." While he has not played any tournament lawn tennis for two summers, he has managed to keep his hand in, so that he hopes to be in form if he has time to play in many events this season.

SANDERSON TO WRESTLE KID WILLIAMS SUNDAY; ZBYSKO WILL RETURN. K. Wojtowicki, known as Joe Sanderson, the wrestling game, will oppose Kid Williams in the feature match to be staged next Sunday afternoon at the Polish-American Hall, 1840 Cass avenue. Sanderson will weigh 160 pounds and Williams 85. Sanderson, two weeks ago in Granite City, beat Tim McCarthy in 2 1/2 and 3 minutes.

Two other matches have been arranged. Barney Kuzma and J. Kelly meeting in the semi-final at 140 pounds, and John Zastrow and Jim Malley, a pair of 170-pounders, going on in the preliminary. The first bout will be started at 3 o'clock.

Officials of the Polish-American Hall also announced that Wladek Zbyzsko, who defeated Stecher and Lewis, would be seen in action here again April 26.

SOCCER RACE WILL BE DECIDED NEXT SUNDAY. At a meeting of the officials of the St. Louis Soccer League, held last night, it was decided to play two extra periods of 15 minutes each in the title game between the Scullins and Infallibles at Cardinal Field Sunday in case the score is tied after the two regulation halves have been completed. This will be done, as no park can be obtained after Sunday.

These two eleven plays the second game, with the Ben Millers and Screw Co. fighting it out in the opener.

WHITEHEAD BEATEN BY STEIN IN PIN MATCH. Otto Stein scored over Oscar Whitehead in his match in the Greater St. Louis individual tournament at Peterson's alleys, last night. Stein won five of the seven games, and but for a 170-game would have broken his former record of 1478. The score of the match was 1779 to 1478.

The match was to have been rolled Sunday but was moved up inasmuch as Stein will leave with the Missouri Pacific destination to bowl at the A. B. C. tourney in Toledo.

Pitcher Shocker to Sail for U. S. First of April

Brown's Winning Hurler Last Season Will Be Here for 1919 Opening.

Urban Shocker, last year's best pitcher on the Browns' staff, has written to the management of the club that he will sail from France April 1 and that he expects to be with the team before the season opens.

At the time Shocker's letter was written, March 9, he stated that they were awaiting embarkation orders. He says that he has been working out two days each week and is in fair condition.

Shocker's record while with the club entitles him to anticipate winning 20 or more games for the club this season, Secretary Robert Quinn stated this morning.

AMATEUR BOXERS WILL NOT TOUR SCANDINAVIA UNTIL COMING OCTOBER. NEW YORK, March 28.—A tour of Scandinavia by American boxers planned for next month, has been postponed until October, according to an announcement here yesterday by Frederick W. Ruben, secretary of the Amateur Athletic Union of the United States.

The A. A. U. was originally invited by the Idrarstaföringen "Sparta" of Copenhagen to send a delegation overseas this month, but when the union replied that this would be impossible until April because of the various A. A. U. district championships, the Danish organization requested postponement until fall.

Ruben stated that winners of the Metropolitan championship here tonight and the bouts scheduled for Boston April 7 and 8 would be given special consideration when the American team was selected.

500 TRACK SUITS TO BE SENT "OVER THERE". WASHINGTON, March 28.—An order for 500 track suits for the track team of the American expeditionary force which will represent the United States in the inter-allied championships to be held in May, was received today by Capt. John I. Griffith, executive officer of the committee on training camp activities.

The track suits will consist of blue running trunks with red stripes down the sides and a white shirt with half-inch red bands around the neck and arms and a red "U. S." on the breast. The suits will be shipped to France immediately.

ATTORNEYS WILL HOLD BOWLING EVENT TODAY. The first annual bowling tournament for attorneys at St. Louis will be held today at 3 o'clock at the Club de la Ville. The entry fee is $1 and will include the price of bowling. All members of the bar are requested to attend this event, the first of its kind ever held in the city.

Brace Jarrett, who is connected with the Circuit Clerk's office, will have charge of the schedule.

Friendly Beats Kapp. The Washington individual bowling championship was won by Otto Friendly, who defeated William Kapp, five out of eight games, in the last match of an elimination tournament last night. Friendly again rolled unusually well, totaling 1553 pins. Kapp was not far behind with a count of 1471. The game scores were: Friendly, 214 163 182 185 200 199 Total, 1153.

Kapp, 225 214 180 172 159 166 154 Total, 1471.

Bergstrom Sets Record. STOCKHOLM, Thursday, March 27. Bergstrom set a new world's record yesterday by skating 10 miles in 21 minutes, 7 1/2 seconds, which is 27 seconds lower than the record held by John S. Johnson of Montreal, Canada.

Benny did to Harvey the many things he forgot to do to Willie Ritchie. There's a reason.

Besides it would be beneath the dignity of a vice president to wallop or be walloped by an umpire.

As Johnny never got better than second money while heading a personally conducted quarrel it is probably just as well that he turn that department over to some one else and devote his entire attention to the executive end of the game.

Sure Is. Kaiser Bill wrote to his son the Clown Squinch, on Nov. 9, that he thought the stuff was all off, but advised him to stick on the job. But as he was getting old and too spry as he used to be he thought he would beat it into Holland while the beating was good. Ain't that just like old Bill?

Folk in the Baltimore Federal League suit says ball players are slaves. Some of 'em do seem to be shackled to the base when a stolen base is the legal play.

However, when their ball-playing days are over they are made free agents and the truth, liberty to sign with any railroad they please as president or general manager.

The Browns are having about as much rain in San Antonio as the Cards are getting in St. Louis. Why go South when you can get it at home?

Al Lippe, manager of Tom Cowley, says Billy Mike's claim that he broke his right hand in his recent quarrel with Cowley is a lame excuse. We'll say it is.

Quite So. The guy who says his arm is lame and of if he can make no use of it seems to be a lame excuse.

Still, a lame excuse, as the fellow says, is better than none. But who boots it as long as you are not financially crippled?
